The 1983-84 Yearbook Staff Proudly Dedicates This Issue Of The Garnett Bulldog To Ethel Rugg.

Mrs. Rugg is pictured here in the biology lab at GHS.

Mrs. Rugg is shown here with evidence of her green thumb.

Mrs. Rugg came to Garnett High School in the fall of 1960. She taught girl's physical education until 1970, when she moved from the gym to the science classroom. From 1970 until 1983 she taught Biology I and lab science.

During the past school year Mrs. Rugg was on a leave of absence.

In April of 1984 Mrs. Rugg decided to retire. Mrs. Rugg commented, "I will miss the students and association with the faculty, but retirement has its advantages too."

Mrs. Rugg always put a great deal of time and energy into her teaching. Evidence of her love of rocks and plants was always prominently displayed in her classroom. She has a "super green thumb" and a rock hunter's sharp eye.

We will certainly miss her friendly smile and her unselfish devotion to her teaching and her students.

We wish her a long and happy retirement!

SONG OF THE OPEN ROAD

Afoot and light-hearted I take to the open road,
Healthy, free, the world before me,
The long brown path before me leading wherever I choose.

Henceforth I ask not good-fortune, I myself am good-fortune,
Henceforth I whimper no more, postpone no more, need nothing,
Done with indoor complaints, libraries, querulous criticisms,
Strong and content I travel the open road.

You road I enter upon and look around,
I believe you are not all that is here,
I believe that much unseen is also here.

The results of a March ice storm.

Here the profound lesson of reception,
 Nor preference nor denial,
 The black with his woolly head, the felon,
 The diseases'd, the illiterate person, are not denied;
 The birth, the hasting after the physician,
 The escaped youth, the rich person's carriage, The early market-man,
 They pass, I also pass, any thing passes,
 None can be interdicted, none but are accepted,
 None but shall be dear to me.

A view of the workstudy parking lot.

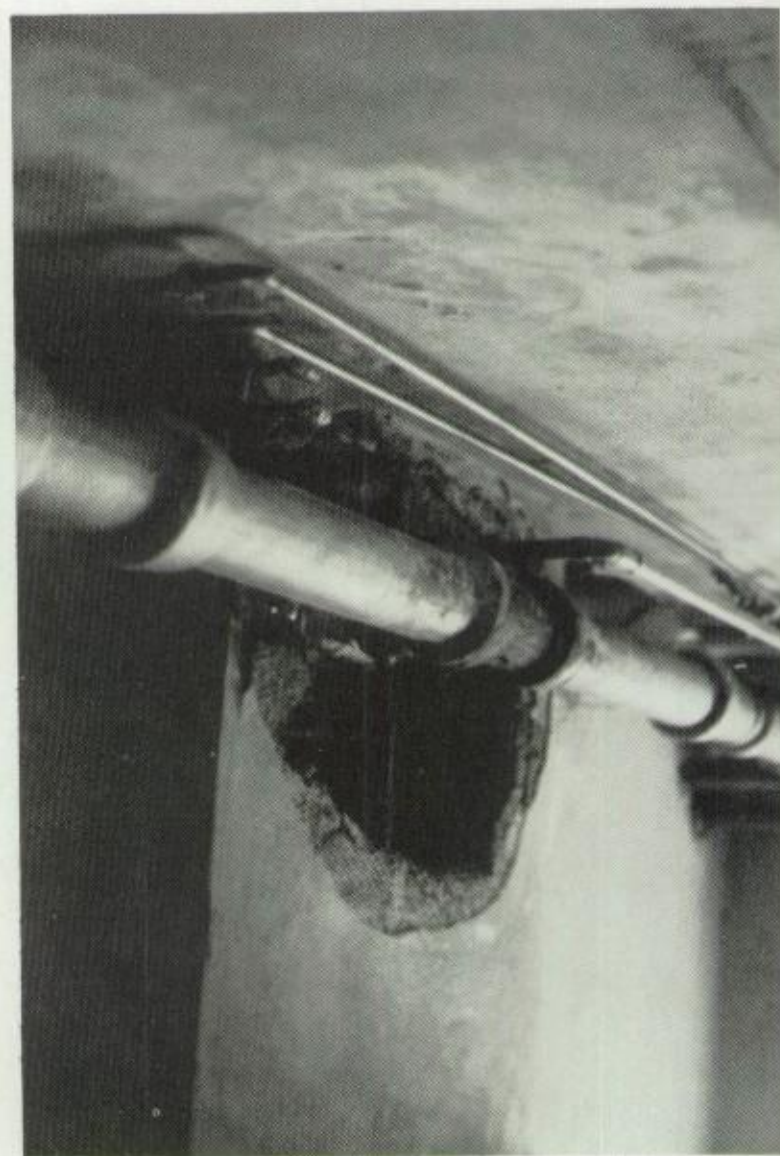

Homecoming King Kenny Frank and Queen Cheryl Highberger share a dance.

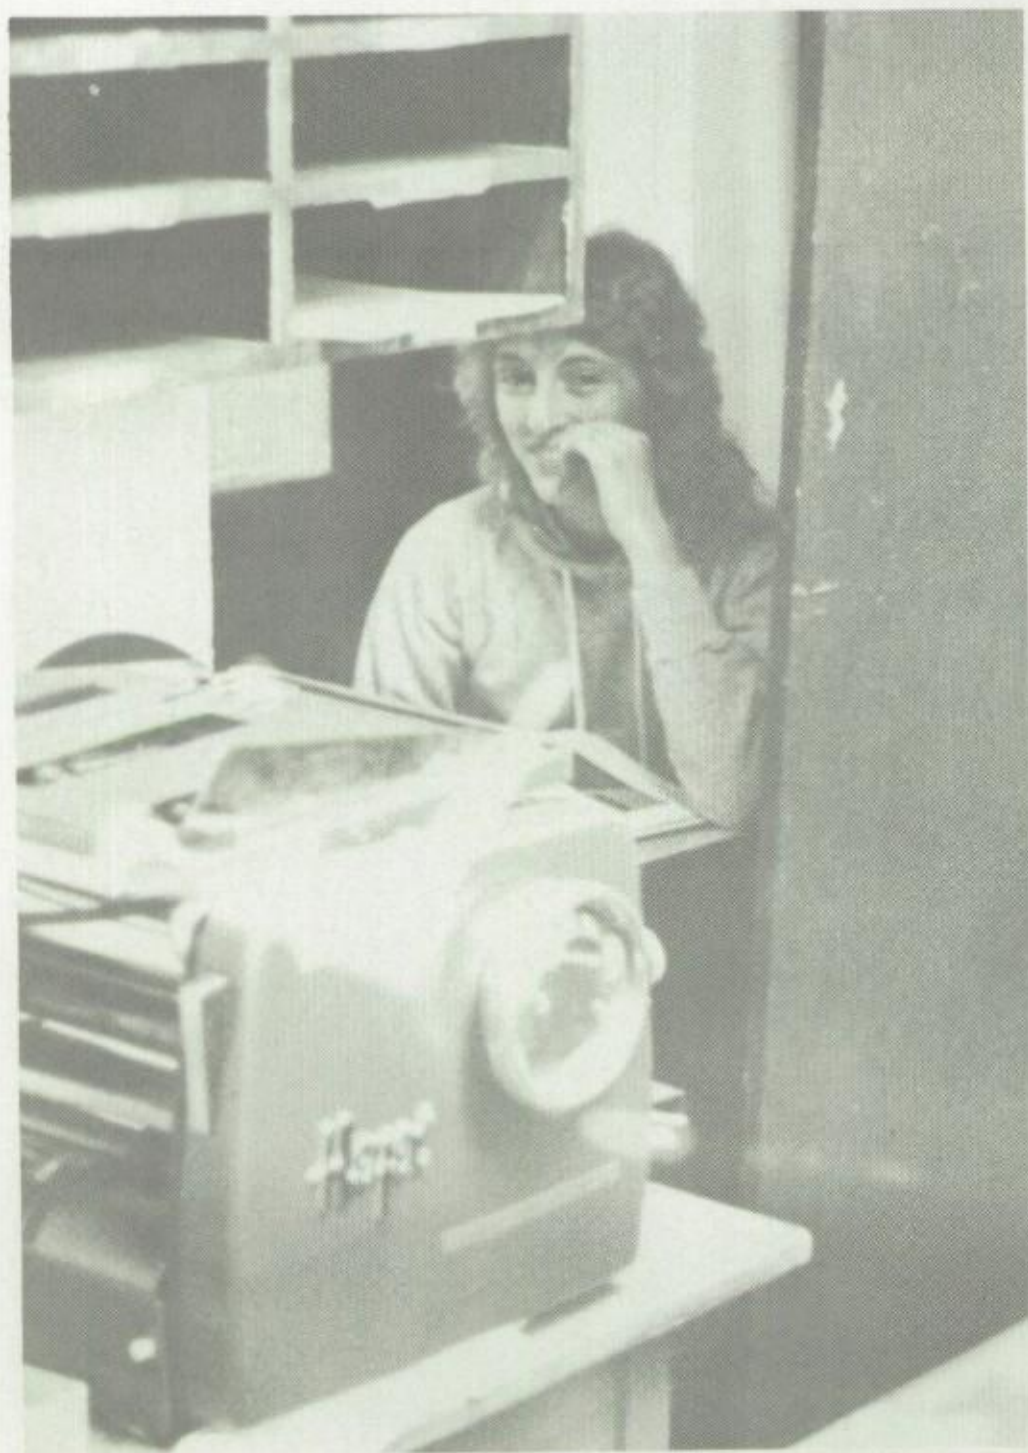

Stacey Singer performs to "Puttin' on the Ritz".

Chris Herold, Leslea Rockers, and Debbie Rockers respectively portray Michael Jackson, Randy Ratliff, and Loretta Lynn in speech class.

Who says we don't need a new high school?

Tracy Lytle seems amused as she resides in the "box".

Connie Lewis finds the smell in the darkroom unbearable.

I inhale great draughts of space,
The east and the west are mine,
And the north and the south are mine.
I am larger than I thought,
I did not know I held so much goodness.

Bulldog mascot, Eddie Winfrey, poses beside his best friend.

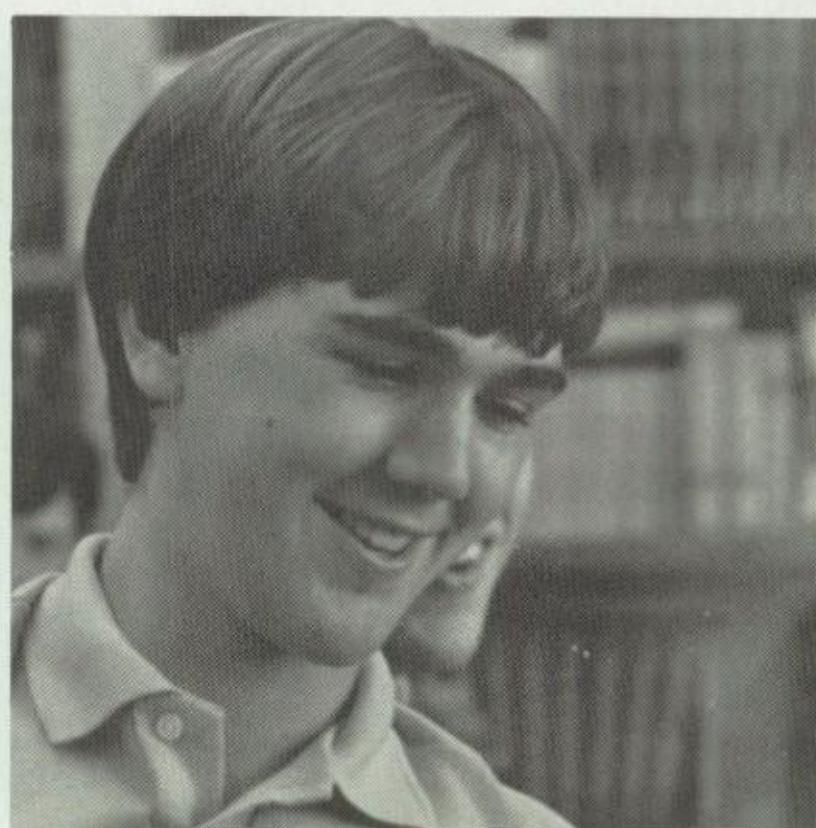

Allons! whoever you are come travel with me!
 Traveling with me you find what never tires.
 The earth never tires,
 The earth is rude, silent, incomprehensible at first,
 Nature is rude and incomprehensible at first,
 Be not discouraged, deep on,
 There are divine things well envelop'd,
 I swear to you there are divine things
 More beautiful than words can tell.

Pat McCullough awaits that final day.

Tony Hoffman and Angie Highberger, frosh attendants, riding in the Homecoming parade.

Kris Moore doesn't have two chins, he has two grins. The second belongs to Eric Arnold.

Brian Wittman and Diane Miller portray workers in the undertakers establishment in the musical "Oliver".

Allons! we must not stop here,
 However sweet these laid-up stores,
 However convenient this dwelling we cannot remain
 here,
 However shelter'd this port and
 However calm these waters we must not anchor here.
 However welcome the hospitality that surrounds us
 We are permitted to receive it but a little while.

Allons! the inducements shall be greater,
 We will sail pathless and wild seas,
 We will go where winds blow, waves dash,
 And the Yankee clipper speeds by under full sail.

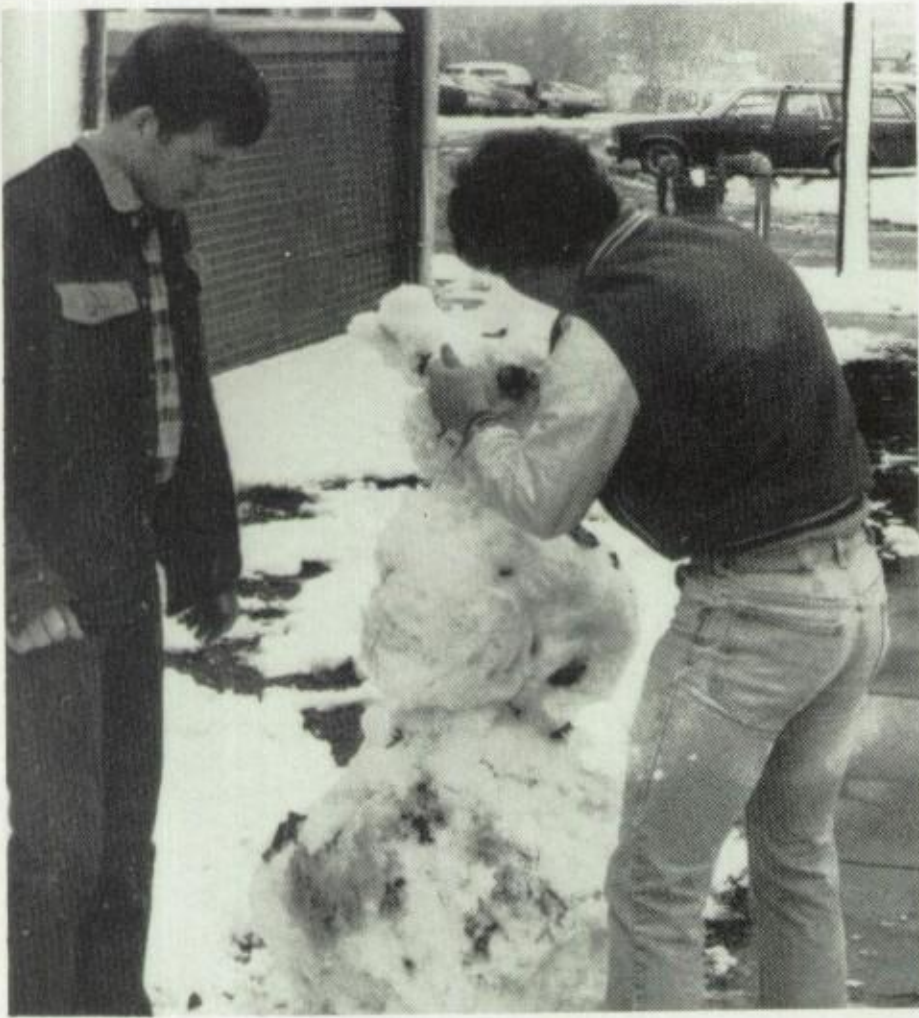

Jim Cazier and Michelle Galey take a break from dinner theater rehearsal.

There was never a dull moment during the 1983 Homecoming festivities.

Allons! through struggles and wars!
 The goal that was named cannot be countermanded.
 Have the past struggles succeeded?
 What has succeeded? yourself? your nation: Nature?
 Now understand me well-it is provided in the essence of things
 That from any fruition of success, no matter what,
 Shall come forth something to make a greater struggle necessary.

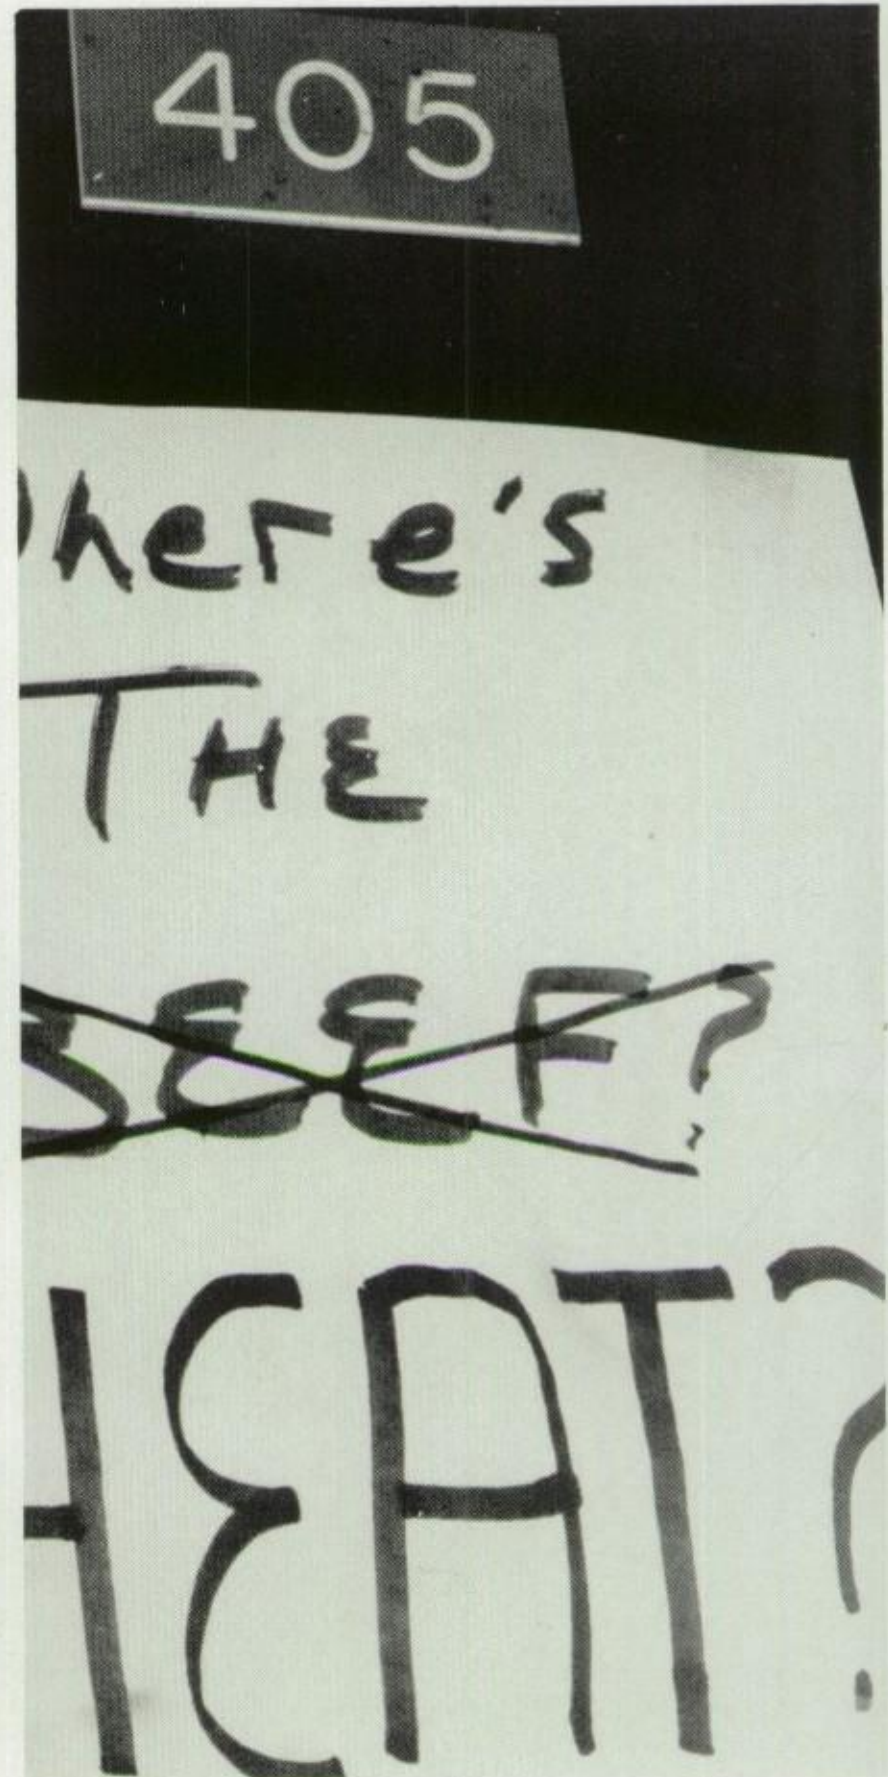

Richark Parks and Rob Miller "forget" they are seniors.

My call is the call of battle,
I nourish active rebellion,
He going with me must go well arm'd,
He going with me goes often with spare diet,
Poverty, angry enemies, desertions.
Allons! the road is before us!
It is safe-I have tried it- be not detain'd!
Let the paper remain on the desk unwritten,
And the book on the shelf unopen'd!
Let the school stand!
Mind not the cry of the teacher!
Let the preacher preach in his pulpit!
Let the lawyer plead in the court,
And the judge expound the law.

Miss Feuerborn, Julie Callahan, and Karen Porter ponder the financial condition of the journalism department.

A national advertising campaign from room 405!

Janine Miller gives Tony Hoffman a few makeup tips.

Mr. Harlin and Mr. Ryman wonder if they should walk across the gym floor?

Shawn Feuerborn, Dorthy Hass, and Candy Worley are really "punked out".

Camerado, I give you my hand!
 I give you my love more precious than money,
 I give you myself before preaching or law;
 Will you give me yourself? will you come travel with me?
 Shall we stick by each other as long as we live?

A FRIEND OR TWO

There's all of pleasure and all of peace
In a friend or two;
And all your troubles may find release
Within a friend or two;
It's in the grip of the sleeping hand
On native soil or in alien land,
But the world is made — do you understand —
Of a friend or two.

A song to sing, and a crust to share
With a friend or two;
A smile to give and a grief to bear
With a friend or two;
A road to walk and a goal to win,
An inglenook to find comfort in,
The gladdest hours that we know begin
With a friend or two.

A little laughter; perhaps some tears
With a friend or two;
The days, the weeks, and the months and years
With a friend or two;
A vale to cross and a hill to climb,
A mock at age and a jeer at time —
The prose of life takes the lift of rhyme
With a friend or two.

The brother-soul and the brother-heart
Of a friend or two
Make us drift on from the crowd apart,
With a friend or two;
For come days happy or come days sad
We count no hours but the ones made glad
By the hale good times we have ever had
With a friend or two.

Then brim the goblet and quaff the toast
To a friend or two,
For glad the man who can always boast
Of a friend or two;
But fairest sight is a friendly face,
The blithest trend is a friendly pace,
And heaven will be a better place
For a friend or two.

CLASS HISTORY

How time flies! We entered first grade in August of 1972. Some of us attended Garnett grade schools, while others went to Greeley or Westphalia. A number of our classmates joined our ranks from various places throughout the United States. Before we knew it we were graduating from the eighth grade and worrying about entering Garnett High School as frightened freshman. Freshman class officers elected were Kenny Frank, President; Rob Miller, Vice-President; Jill Fooshee, Secretary; Steven Eichman, Treasurer; Teresa Singer and Rodney Setter, Stuco representatives. David Fuhrman, Larry Massey, Debbie Mayes, Kerry Hass, and Brad Leitch were in the musical, "Oklahoma". A dinner theater was presented in place of a spring play. Homecoming attendents were Karen Porter and Steven Eichman. Winter Homecoming attendents were Teresa Singer and Kenny Frank. FFA-FHA Christmas dance attendents were Teresa Singer and Vic Blaufuss.

Sophomore class officers were Kenny Frank, President; Janet Wittry, Vice-President; Cheryl Highberger, Secretary; Tom Cole, Treasurer; Marty Holloran, Historian; Teresa Singer and Rodney Setter, Stuco representatives. Tom Cole had a lead role in the musical "Carousel". Jill Fooshee and Brad Leitch participated in the spring play "Harvey". Homecoming attendents were Karen Porter and Kenny Frank. Winter Homecoming attendents were Cheryl Highberger and Kenny Frank. FFA-FHA Christmas dance attendents were Leslea Rockers and Troy Eddings.

The 1982-83 prom was held in the gymnasium. The setting was southern with the theme "Only Time Will Tell". The junior class sponsor was Mrs. Donna Kimmell. A dinner was held at Holy Angels gym before the dance. For the first time in GHS history a disc jockey provided the entertainment for the evening. The prom colors were a variety of pastel shades.

For our final year at Garnett High School class officers elected were Sue Hill, President; Teresa Singer, Vice-President; Janet Wittry, Secretary; Karen Porter, Treasurer; Julie Callahan, Historian; Cheryl Highberger and Scott Davison, Stuco representatives. Ritva Jantunen, exchange student from Finland, added an international flavor to the Class of '84. Homecoming King and Queen were Kenny Frank and Cheryl Highberger. Other Homecoming attendents were Teresa Singer, Roger Burcham, Janet Wittry, and Marty Holloran. FFA-FHA Christmas dance King and Queen were John Miller and Donna Mader. Other Christmas dance attendents were Sandie Jasper, Richard Parks, Margie Wiederholt, and Randy Ratliff. Winter Homecoming King and Queen were Scott Davison and Teresa Gettler. Winter Homecoming attendents were Teresa Singer, Marty Holloran, Janet Wittry, and Steven Eichman.

We had big decisions to make about life after high school. While we were happy about getting out of school, we were sad about leaving our friends and memories behind.

On May 21, 1984 94 proud seniors received their diplomas.

GROWING SMILES

A smile is quite a funny thing,
It wrinkles up your face,
And when it's gone, you never find
Its secret hiding place.

But far more wonderful it is
To see what smiles can do;
You smile at one, he smiles at you,
And so one smile makes two.

He smiles at someone since you
smiled,
And then that one smiles back;
And that one smiles, until in truth
You fail in keeping track.

Now since a smile can do great good
By cheering hearts of care,
Let's smile and smile, and not forget
That smiles go everywhere!

BARTER

Life has loveliness to sell,
All beautiful and splendid things,
Blue waves whitened on a cliff,
Soaring fire that sways and sings,
And children's faces looking up,
Holding wonder like a cup.

Life has loveliness to sell,
Music like a curve of gold,
Scent of pine trees in the rain,
Eyes that love you, arms that hold,
And for your spirit's still delight,
Holy thoughts that star the night.

Spend all you have for loveliness,
Buy it and never count the cost;
For one white singing hour of peace
Count many a year of strife well lost,
And for breath of ecstasy
Give all you have been, or could be.

Homecoming week, as always, was an exciting one for G.H.S. students. Each day of the week of Oct. 9-14, students dressed for the theme of the day. The theme of the dance was "Stolen Moments".

The G.H.S. Band led the entire student body and faculty early Friday afternoon on the traditional route around the square downtown and to the one-way south of the courthouse for the pep rally. Each class and the faculty performed skits to entertain the crowd. Cheers and chants were led by the cheerleaders, who also performed a dance routine. It was announced that the Juniors had won the hall and the float contest.

At the coronation that night King Kenny Frank and Queen Cheryl Highberger were crowned. After the game against Osawatimie, a dance was held in the gym to end the celebration.

The pep rally's success is proven by these faces.

Holly Sommer displays her spirit.

Kathy Miller helps decorate the Senior float.

Cheerleaders Dorothy Hass, Teresa Singer, and Shari Lickteig perform their routine to "Beat It."

Blindfolded, Darrel Erhart inhales bananas to the delight of the Crowd and his "opponents" in the Sophomores' unforgettable contest.

Juniors Cecilie Weems and Janet Lankard represent the true Homecoming spirit.

Directed by drum major Anita Dieker, the G.H.S. Band leads the parade.

Little Red Riding Hood (Teresa Singer) frolics to Grandma's house in the Senior skit.

Anita poses for the camera.

Rev. Craig Kueser and followers mourn the death of a Trailblazer in the Frosh skit.

“Oliver!” Was A Great Success

Kerry Hass as Bill Sikes sings a threatening rendition of the song "My Name".

Rick Wright, "The Dodger" persuades Kent Bohling, "Oliver", to join the gang of pickpockets.

Julie Wells, unsuccessfully eludes Tony Hoffman during their humorous duet "I Shall Scream".

"Oliver!", the 1983 Musical was the Lionel Bart adaption of Charles Dickens classic, "Oliver Twist".

The show tells the story in song and dance of a band of youthful pickpockets, headed by Fagin, who attempt to bring Oliver Twist into their life of crime.

The GHS version was well received by large audiences. In spite of problems finding accompanists, a practice schedule that was planned around the many other activities of cast members, and injuries, Mr. Massey and Miss Feuerborn maintained their sanity. The show went on as scheduled.

The show was presented November 17 and 18 to packed houses.

Leading roles were played by Jill Fooshee, Kent Bohling, Doug Lee, Rick Wright, Kerry Hass, Julie Wells, and Tony Hoffman.

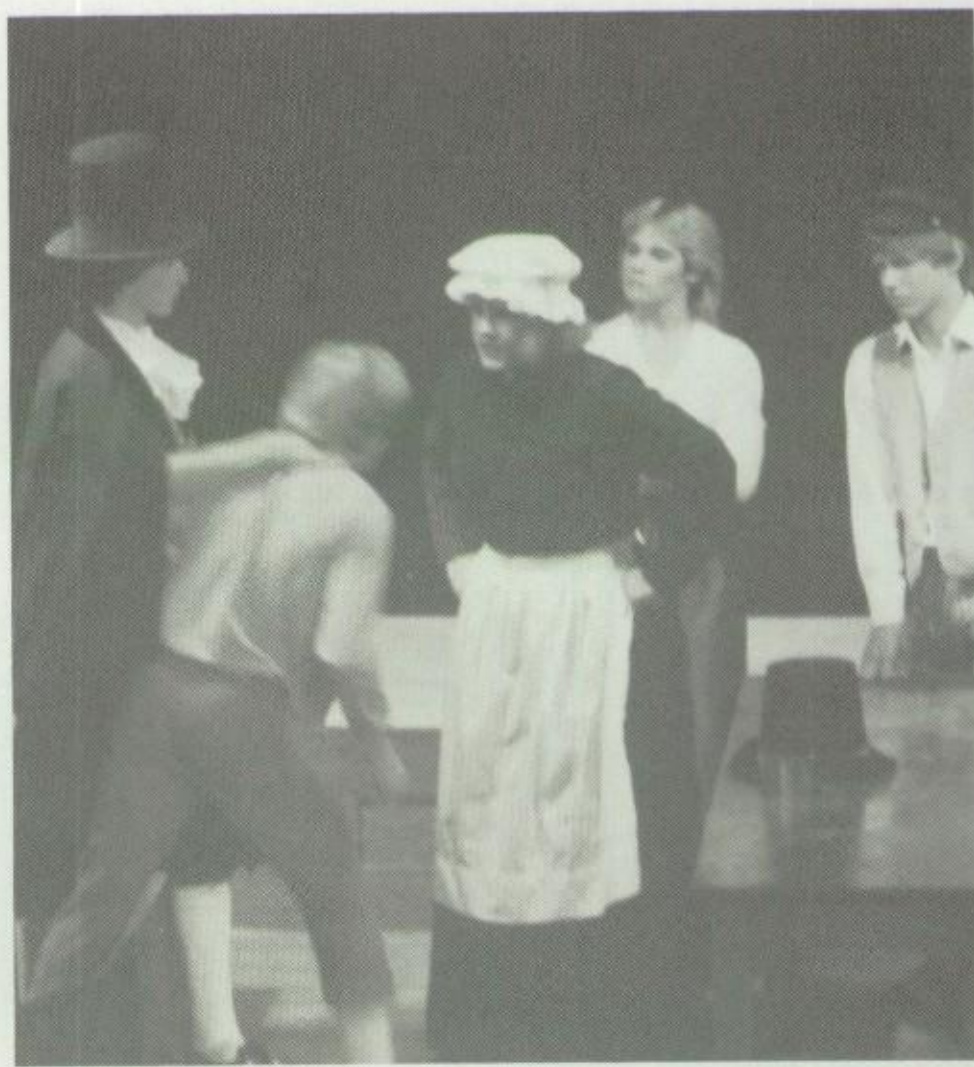

In addition to high school students, Reuben Feuerborn, Craig Galey, Amy Mader, Tina Mader, Adam Mansfield, Megan Mansfield appeared in the cast.

Fagin (Doug Lee) instructs the boys in the fine art of pocket picking.

Now and Forever

When love is new
And the world isn't reaching for you
We try hard to hold it off
In our hands
But it slipped through
Like soft drifting sands
But drying the tears
Can build it all like new

Now and forever
Remember the words
From my heart will always be true
Now and forever
Together and all that I feel
Here's my love for you

Learning each day
That the right time was so far away
To tell you the things I knew
Now it's clear
That the moment
We searched for is here
And counting the years
Is all I want to do

Now and forever
Remember the words
From my heart will always be true
Now and forever
Together and all that I feel
Here's my love for you

Hold me as close
As love will allow
Until all your fears are gone
What has all passed
Is over now
I'm here with you
I'm here with you
I'm holding on
I'm holding on

Kayettes Are Productive

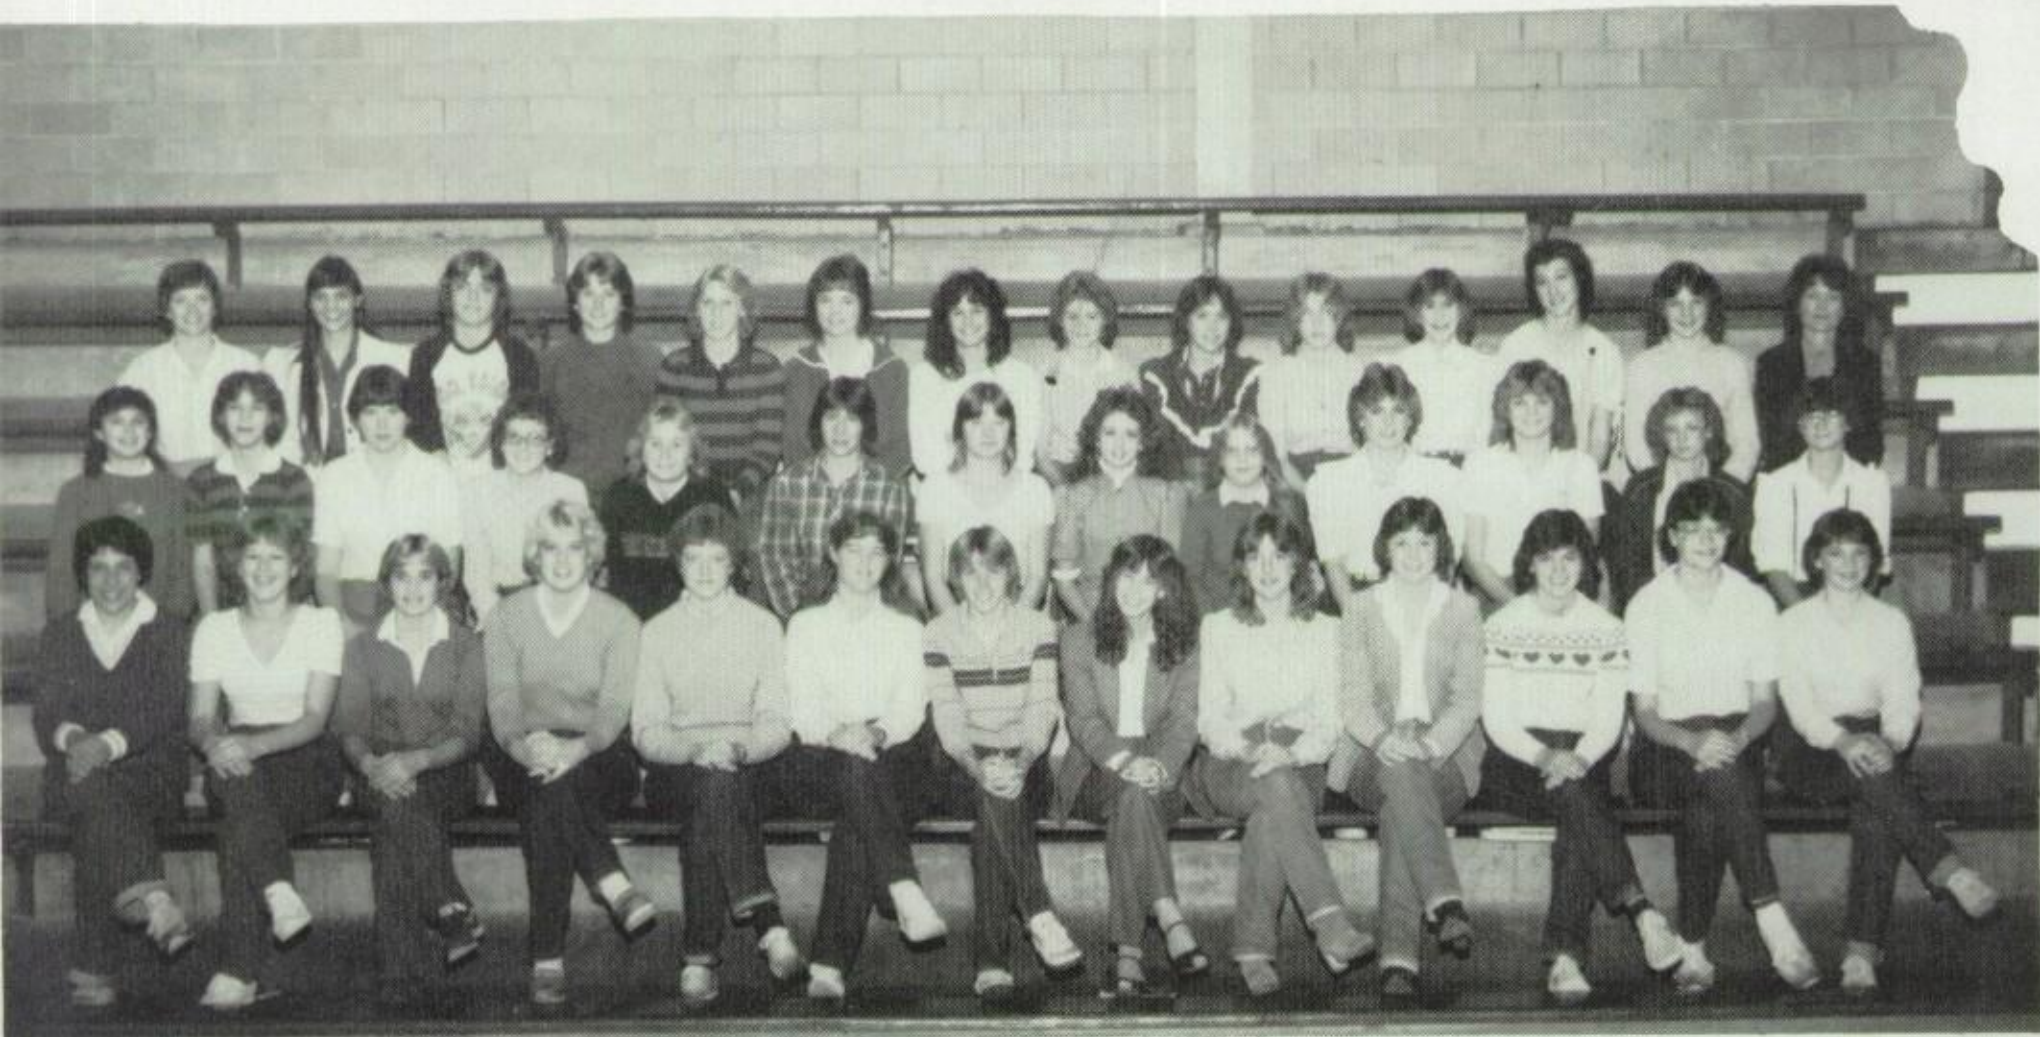

Under the leadership of Mary Sobba, President, the G.H.S. Kayettes had a fun, productive year. Other officers were: Teresa Gettler; Vice President, Kathy Miller, Secretary; and Terry Wittman; Treasurer.

Kayettes have always been the "Good Samaritans" of G.H.S., doing a number of favors for the school as well as for the community and beyond. The members, as in years past, brought cookies to school to serve to parents attending the parent-teacher conferences. A small group of members were ushers for the musical in the fall and sold punch during the intermissions. Proceeds from a bake sale were donated to the Helipad fund at the Anderson County Hospital. Along with Stuco, the club gave cakes to the athletic teams that went to state. Money was donated to help purchase neighborhood watch signs, as this was a new project in the community. In the Garnett Christmas parade, a few members dressed as clowns and passed out candy. For their national project during Kayette week, the club contributed ten dollars to help fight cancer. A young girl from the Dominican Republic was "adopted" by the club as part of a world service project. Another way the Kayettes helped children was by participating in the "Big Sister" program with the F.H.A. Along with visiting with their "Little Sisters", individually, participants had planned group activities. The first activity was a Halloween party, followed by a Christmas skating party and a Valentines Day party.

To finish off the school year, an Easter egg hunt for small children was planned for April 19. That afternoon, the Kayettes were to help Stuco sponsor a Riverrock concert for G.H.S. students.

This years Hi-Y club was made up of 31 members. The officers this year were Todd Barnes, president; Brad Leitch, vice-president; Sean Cahoon, secretary; Brian Rockers, treasurer; Rob Miller, sergent-at-arms; Derrick Adams, Stuco; and Nathan Weide, chaplin.

Hi-Y is a club that is basically a service organization with the YMCA sponsoring them at the state level.

The money making project this year was selling popcorn at the various high school home games.

This year the Hi-Y went to Topeka for Model Legislature. The requirement for attending the Model Legislature is that each participant had to make up a bill and represent it before the House. Students that attended were Brad Leitch, Tom Cole, Todd Barnes, Mike Brummel, Sean Cahoon. Brad Leitch had the honor of being chosen for the Speaker of the House at the Model Lesiglature.

The G.H.S. Art Club of 1983-84 was led by President Gail Reynolds. The other officers were: Theresa Miller; Vice President, Connie Lewis; Secretary, Cindy Wells; Treasurer, and Rhonda Young; Stuco Representative. Lois Henry was the sponsor for this group.

A bake sale was held in December to raise money for the club. Members also sold "Bulldog" keychains and buttons during January and February.

Cecilie Weems drew a unicorn design for the front of the club T-shirts, representing the popularity of unicorns in 1983.

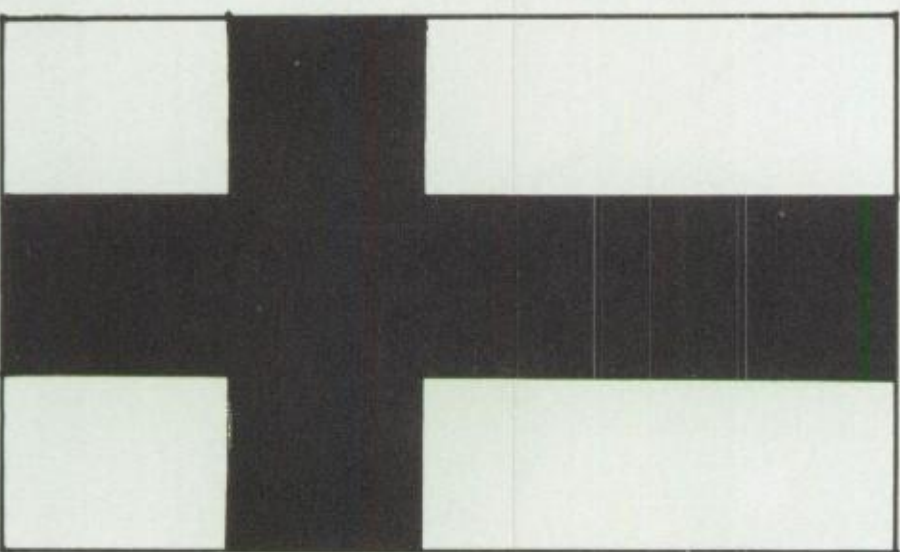

Due to the snow days before Christmas vacation, the Art Club members exchanged Christmas gifts at the January meeting. Most would agree that the postponement was a small sacrifice for a longer Christmas vacation. As of March, the club was planning a one-day trip to finish off the school year.

The Internationals club had a busy 1983-84 school year. At the first meeting, a slide Presentation was given by Ritva (Ippa) Jantunen, G.H.S.'s foreign exchange student from Finland. Due to heavy snowfall during the Holiday season, the Christmas party was postponed and postponed . . . and postponed! It was an unforgettable season. The greatest project of the year was probably the annual selling of carnations for Valentine's day. Most G.H.S. students really seemed to enjoy sending and receiving carnations from friends and admirers. Approximately $150 profit was donated to charity. As of March, the club planned to visit the Waldo Astoria in Kansas City in April. The annual Spring banquet and election of new officers was planned to take place at Jodi Mersman's house later in the year.

This group, sponsored by Anita Dennis, was led by President Janet Wittry. Other officers were: Jill Fooshee; Vice President, Sue Hill; Secretary-Treasurer, Diane Miller; Stuco Representative, and Georgette Milius; Refreshments. The 1983-84 year for these officers was a job well done!

Five new faculty members were added to GHS this past year. Miss Lisa Reeves replaced Miss Debbie Umbarger in the English department. It was Miss Reeves first year as a teacher. She graduated from Central College in Pella, Iowa with a B.A. in communications.

Mr. Mike Harlin was hired to teach weight training, driver's education, and health. Mr. Harlin graduated from Pittsburg State University with a B.S. in physical education. He previously taught in Gainesville, Mo.

Mrs. Susan Robinson replaced Mrs. Ethel Rugg (who was on a years leave of absence) in the science department. She taught Biology I and lab science. She graduated from K.U. with B.S. in Education. She has substituted at GHS for the past five years.

Mr. Steve Weidner was hired to instruct the GHS band. He attended Washburn University where he received his B.M.E. Mr. Gordon Lankenau was hired to be the assistant band instructor. Mr. Lankenau has a B.S. degree from K.U.

There was a major change in the in-school suspension policy. During the 1983-84 school year students had to sit in a boxed off area in the office. The administrators referred to this "box" as the partition, while some students called it the "dog pen". This innovation was not popular with the students.

A curriculum study was initiated and will be in progress until 1985, when the project will be completed. New curtains were added to the auditorium.

Unfortunately, some things remained the same; the mobile units still leaked, trucks still parked in the breezeway, on many occasions the parking lots became swamps, and the ancient boilers were expected to produce heat for yet another year.

In spite of all the things that refused to work or wore out, the faculty felt the students this year were some of the best!

Vocab. + Reading + Themes = English!

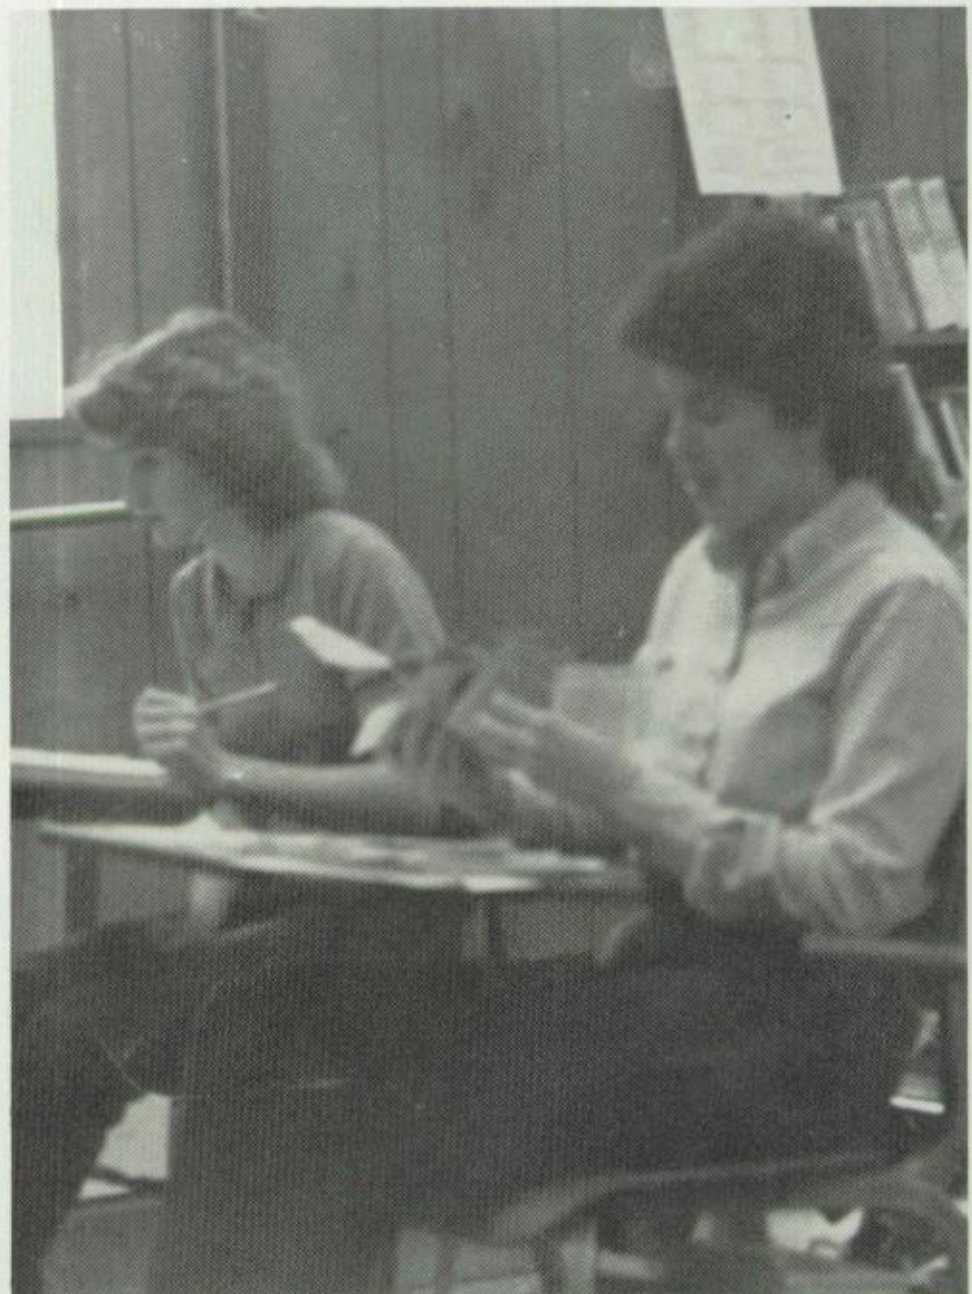

Miss Reeves seems to have survived her first year of teaching.

Mrs. Windsor is obviously trying to find more symbolism and illusion in Shakespeare.

Anita Dieker and Gerald Lutz, perfect examples of "serious dedicated students".

Kathy Hermann tries to decide with the help of Lisa Ball, "is that an infinitive or a participle?"

Miss Lisa Reeves was a new addition to the English Department this year. Miss Reeves attended Central College, Pella, Iowa and has a B.A. degree in communications/speech. She taught junior and senior English, debate, and forensics. Miss Reeves also served as the debate coach.

Miss Jane Feuerborn taught senior English, College Preparatory English, speech, and journalism. Miss Feuerborn has a B.A. degree in drama and English from Saint Mary College, Leavenworth, Ks. and a Masters in counseling from Emporia State University.

Mrs. Cheryl Studna taught 9th grade English all year and 10th grade English first semester as well as second semester courses of science fiction, and creative reading and writing. Mrs. Studna has a B.S. degree from Kansas University.

Many different films were watched by the classes last year. Miss Feuerborn's college prep class viewed "Macbeth" and her speech class saw "My Fair Lady". The juniors watched several American short stories. Mrs. Studna's Mystery, Science Fiction, and the Unexplained were frightened by many mystery films.

Mr. Kellstadt and Miss Feuerborn cooperated in torturing students as they had their classes do term papers that counted for English and Government credit.

All freshmen English classes received a week long course "How to Use the Library" taught by Mrs. Shelley.

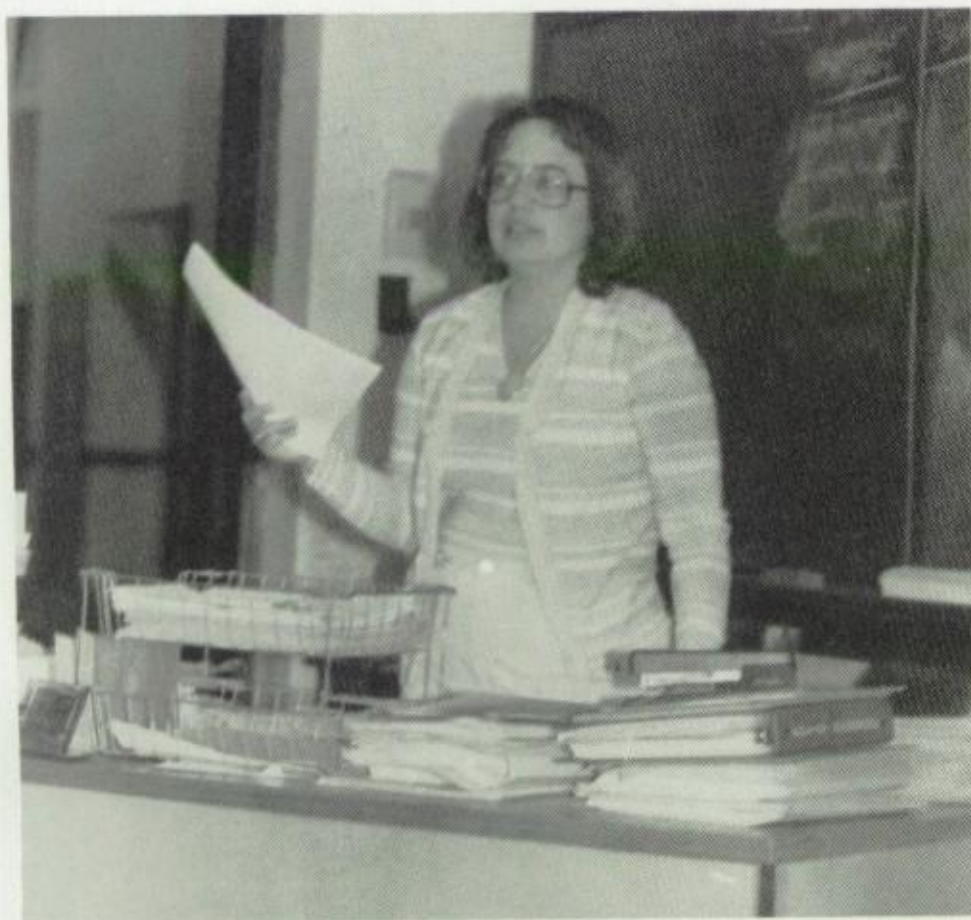

Miss Burjes and Sammy Lopez share a lighted hearted moment in English as Toni Katzer looks on.

Bryan Lickteig thinks "is the answer A or B or True or False".

Miss Feuerborn says to Rob Miller, "I told you the Red Sox will win their division". Rob seems unimpressed.

Mrs. Studna tells her class, "each paragraph must end with a transition sentence".

Jill Adler seems to be saying, "I have finally finished that theme".

During Mrs. Robinsons first year of teaching at GHS, she taught biology I and lab science. Mrs. Robinson has also substituted at GHS for the past five years.

In Mr. Windsor's classes, they did many unusual experiments. Eric Arnold had a hair-raising experience with the Van de Graaf generator in physics. The generator made Eric's hair stand on end when he touched it. In chemistry, the classes found the percent of acid in vinegar and checked this with the percent on the bottle. Mr. Windsor's lab science class talked about simple machines and the mechanical advantage of them. Mr. Kimmell's Biology I classes took a couple of field trips and so did Mrs. Robinson's Biology I class. Mr. Kimmell's Biology II classes dissected fetal pigs, took blood tests and studied the results and also studied systems of the human body.

Mr. Windsor explains mechanical advantage to his lab science class.

Is it true that Doug Erhart will eat anything?!?

A smiling Mrs. Robinson beams at her biology class.

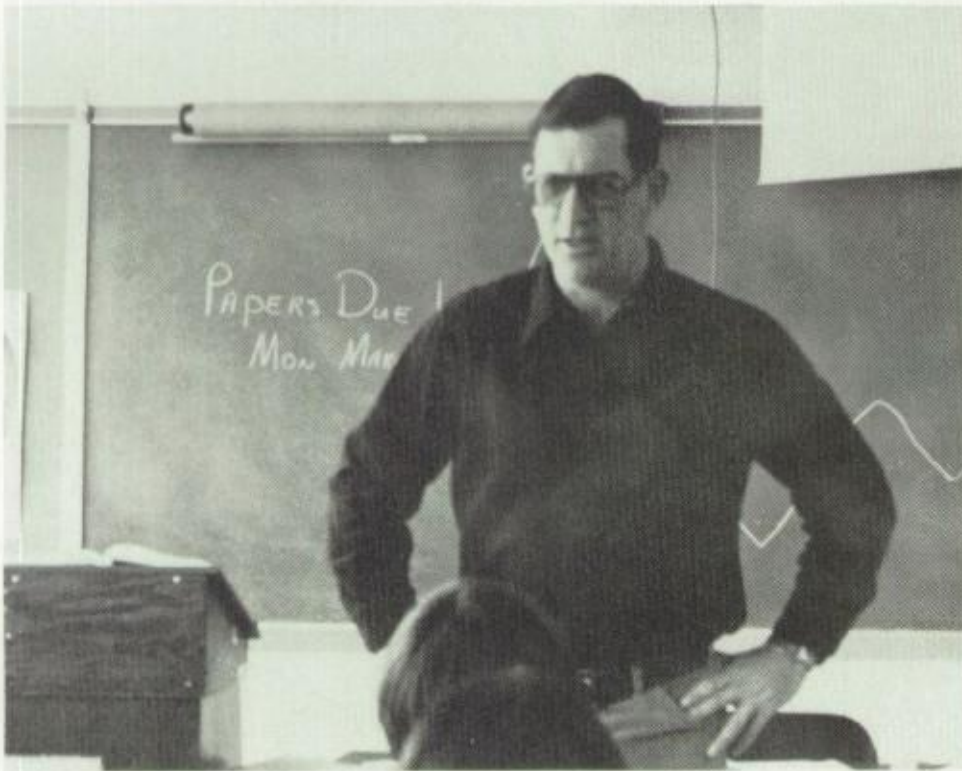

"Hey Theresa", I think I found the lungs! Theresa Miller and Scott Reesor are lab partners in Biology II.

Eric Doran and Chris Pedrow seem interested in what Mr. Windsor is saying, while Pat McMahan and Kathi Harrington are amused.

Journalists Combine Their Talents

Front row l. to r., Julie Callahan, yearbook editor; Kris Moore, Scott Davison, Rod Setter, Jill Adler, Gail Reynolds, Stacy Hodgson, 2nd row, Jane Feuerborn, advisor; Karen Porter, newspaper editor; Rob Miller, Brad Leitch, Dorothy Hass, Theresa Miller, Connie Lewis, Brenda Weiss, Jill Fooshee, 3rd row, Tom Cole, Mike Brummel, Jim Cazier, Eric Arnold, Monica Dieker, Mary Rockers, Randy Ratliff, and Shane McMahan.

The 1983-84 Journalism Department was combined into one class which produced both the newspaper and the yearbook. The students were basically divided into two groups, yearbook and newspaper, however many students contributed to both publications.

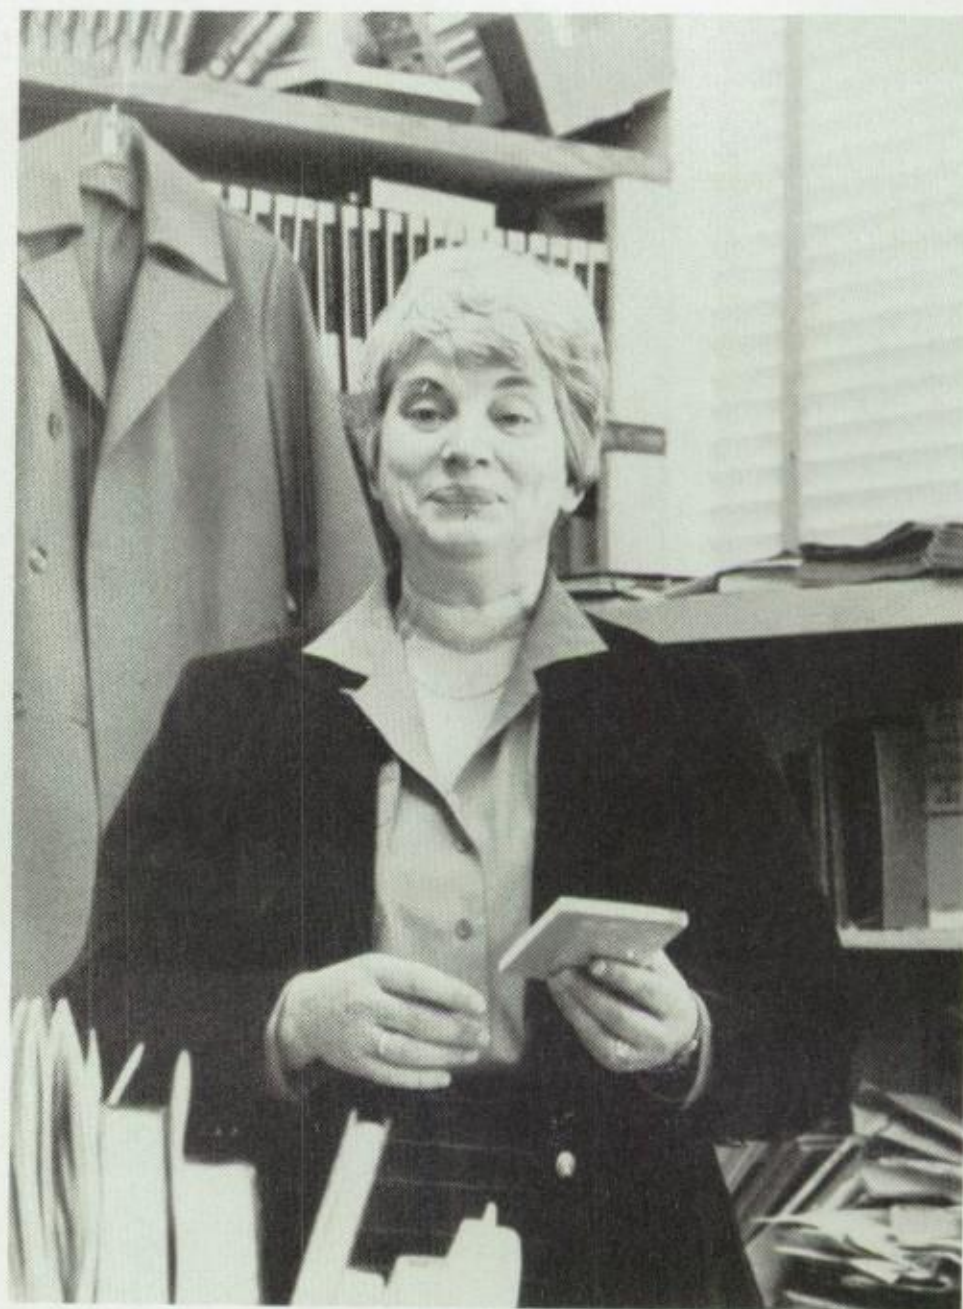

Karen Porter was the editor of the newspaper. It also featured, for the first time, Rob Miller as cartoonist. The newspaper was financially supported by the advertising of local businesses. However, when it was on the verge of declaring bankruptcy, the students sold candy to refurbish the account. The combined class was able to produce more papers than last year and they were presented to the students and faculty free of charge.

Julie Callahan was the Editor-in-Chief of the 1984 yearbook. Assisting her were Brad Leitch, copy editor, and Connie Lewis, photography editor. Julie Callahan and Brad Leitch were responsible for the introduction. Stacy Hodgson and Jill Adler produced the classes section with Julie providing the senior class pages. Connie, Randy Ratliff, Scott Davison, and Dorothy Hass did the activities section. The academic section was done with the combined efforts of Julie, Brad, Jill, Stacy, Mary Rockers, Shane McMahan, and Gail Reynolds. Advertising was produced by Mary, Mike Brummel, Pat McCullough, and Monica Dieker. And the graduation section was done by Brad and Julie. The yearbooks were distributed in August in order to include spring sports and graduation.

Both publications were plagued by insufficient darkroom facilities. Theresa Miller was the chief photographer and in charge of darkroom procedures. She was assisted by Monica Dieker. The darkroom is the recipient of the steam emitted from the kitchen, thus making working conditions nearly intolerable. Her dedication and that of her assistants was greatly appreciated although we may not have shown it at times. Thanks!

Julie Callahan, yearbook editor, works diligently preparing for a deadline.

Jane Feuerborn, advisor, expresses her true feelings about journalism.

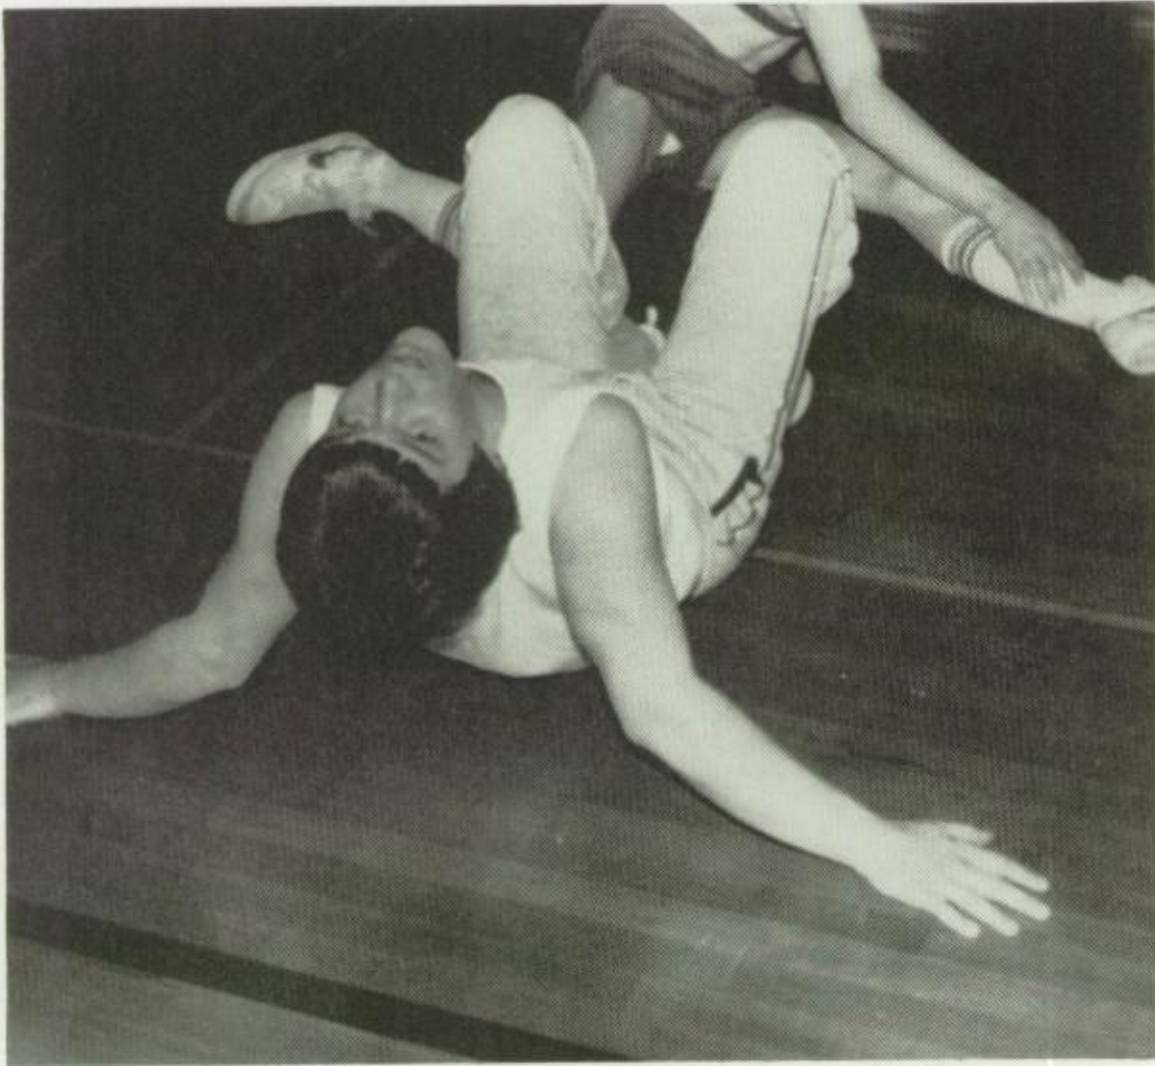

Karen Porter, newspaper editor, wonders if her classmates have handed in their stories.

The entire journalism class would like to extend a great big thank you to their exceptional instructor, Jane Feuerborn. Your patience and understanding were greatly appreciated.

Health was added to the 1983-84 curriculum. Students had the option of taking health and driver's education as a combined one year course in addition to their required classes.

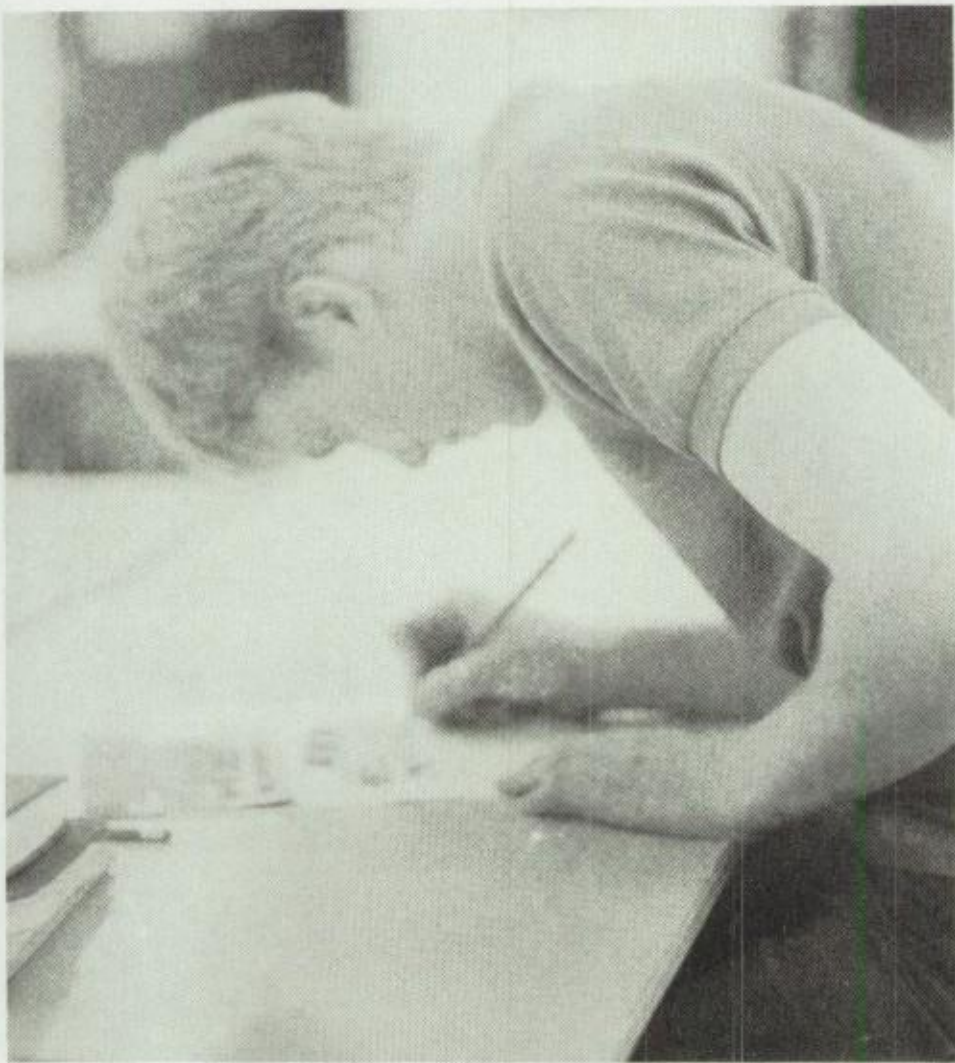

Another major change was students didn't drive during the school year. They drove during the summer.

Mr. Mike Harlin taught weight training, health, and driver's education. Mr. Harlin has a B.S. in physical education. He attended Pittsburg State University.

The art classes under the direction of instructor Lois Henry produced a variety of projects. The art work ran the gamut from pencil sketches to oil painting, from macrame' to pottery.

Art 1 classes worked with mediums such as pastels, pen and ink and pencil. Some printing was also done. The Art II classes did oil painting, sculpture and drawing. Art III and IV students worked on individualized projects. They were also required to write summaries of their daily work progress which helped the students set goals for themselves.

Some students entered their projects in art contests. Four projects were entered in the Federated Art Contest in Osawatomie March 3rd. Three firsts were received by Julie Wells for her pencil drawing, Le Ann Strain for her sculpture and Theresa Miller for her weaving.

Mrs. Henry who has been teaching at G.H.S. for 11 years received a B.A. in art education from Pittsburg State University and has done graduate work at Wichita State University and Emporia State University.

Munchies Delight "Sweetens" Year

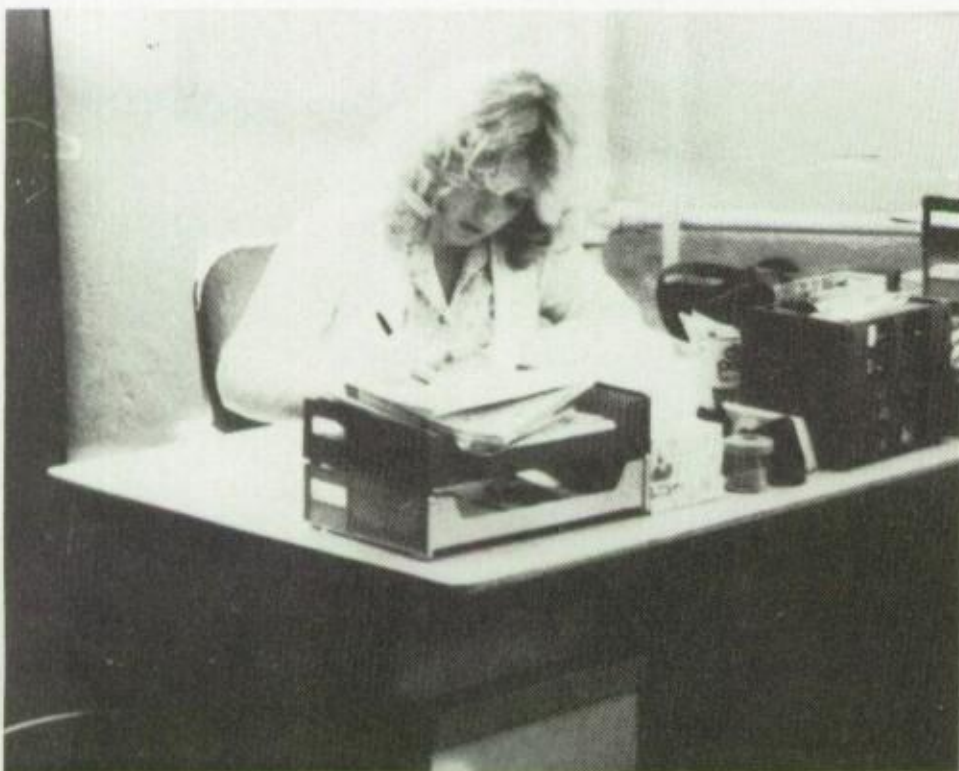

Mrs. Miller prepares icing for a cake.

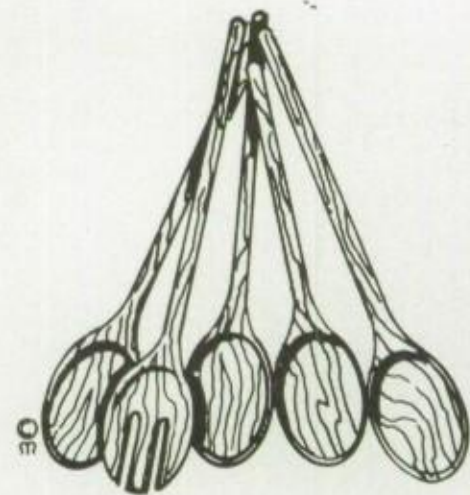

1983-84 is the second year for Miss Dee Ann Clark at GHS. She teaches Vocational Home Economics which includes the classes Home Ec. I, Home Ec. II, Housing, Marriage and Family, and Advanced Clothing. Miss Clark attended Allen County Community College for two years and then Emporia State where she graduated in 1982. At Emporia she received her BSE degree in Associate Arts.

Mrs. Jayne Miller also teaches the variety of Vocational Home Ec. classes. Mrs. Miller attended Allen County Community College for two years and graduated from Kansas State University.

The Home Ec. department once again had the Munchies Delight program. They baked cookies, sweet rolls, brownies and other goodies which the student body bought during their noon break. They sold 95 shares in their program for $1.50 a share. They gave their shareholders $9.50 at the end of the third quarter.

Denis Wiesner routs a project that he has planned.

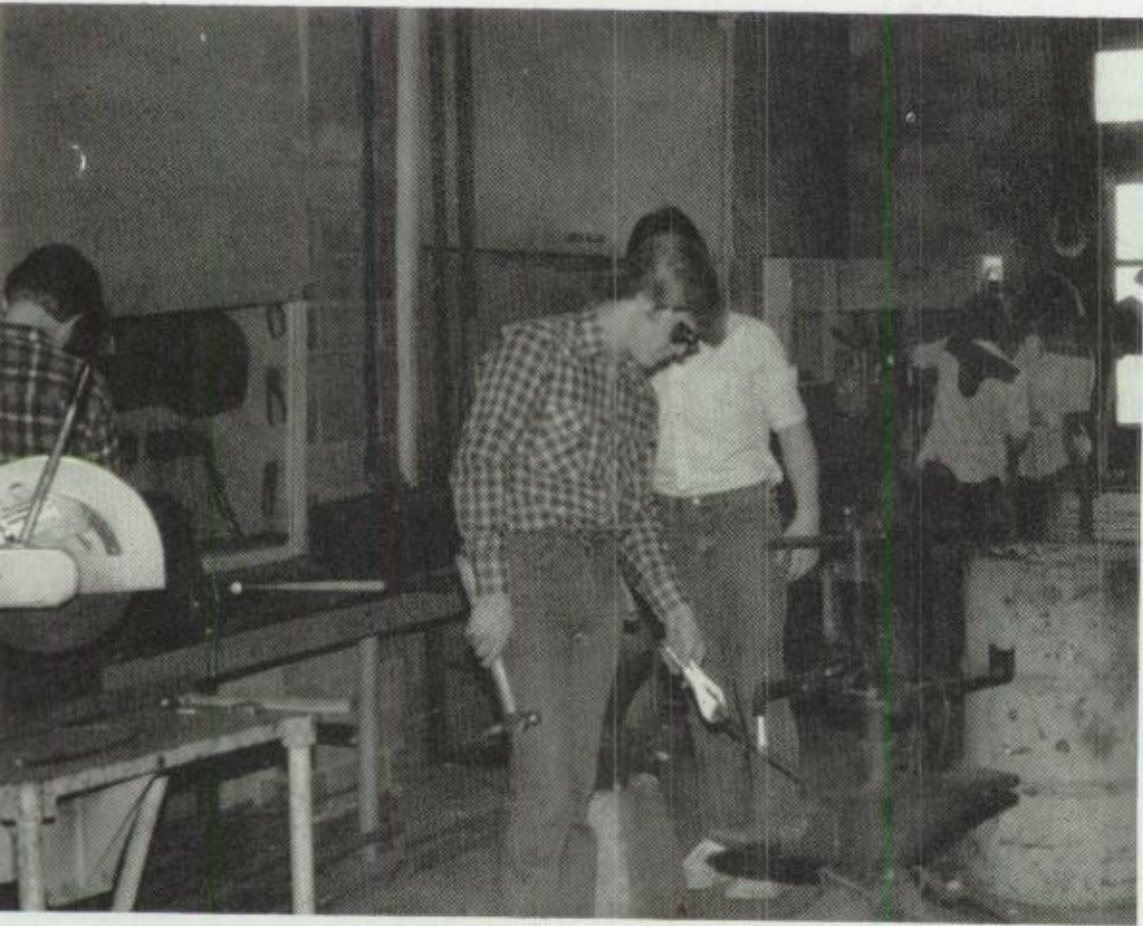

The industrial arts classes are taught by Jerry Howarter. There are three levels of shop in which students are required to make several projects both from scratch and from a pattern.

Students in Wood I are required to make a night-stand from a pattern. In Wood II, the students must draw the plans for their projects. The major project must involve doors. Students in Wood III must make a major project with drawers, a clock, and another minor project. The students buy the materials for their projects from the school's lumber supply.

Students Develop And Use Skills In Ag

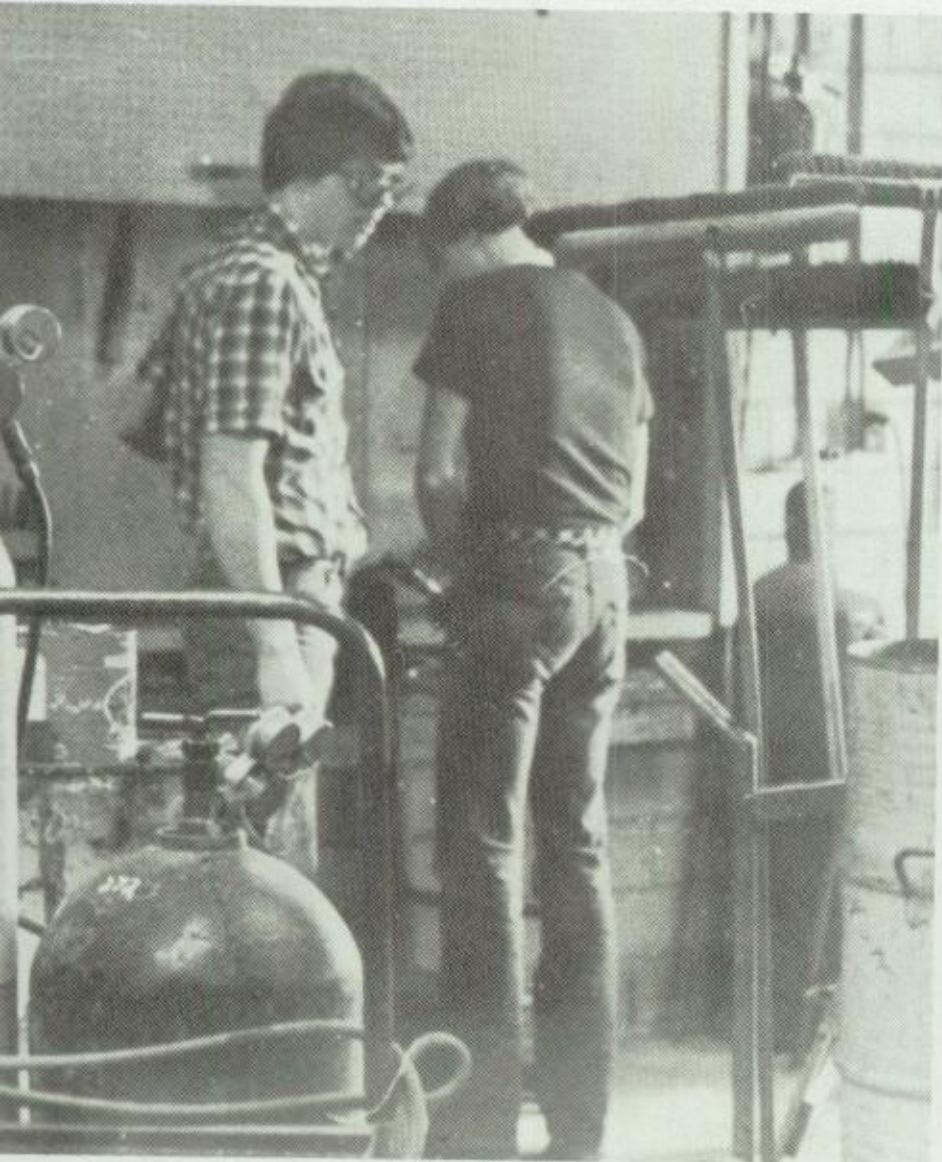

Randy Read heats a piece of metal to be fitted for a project.

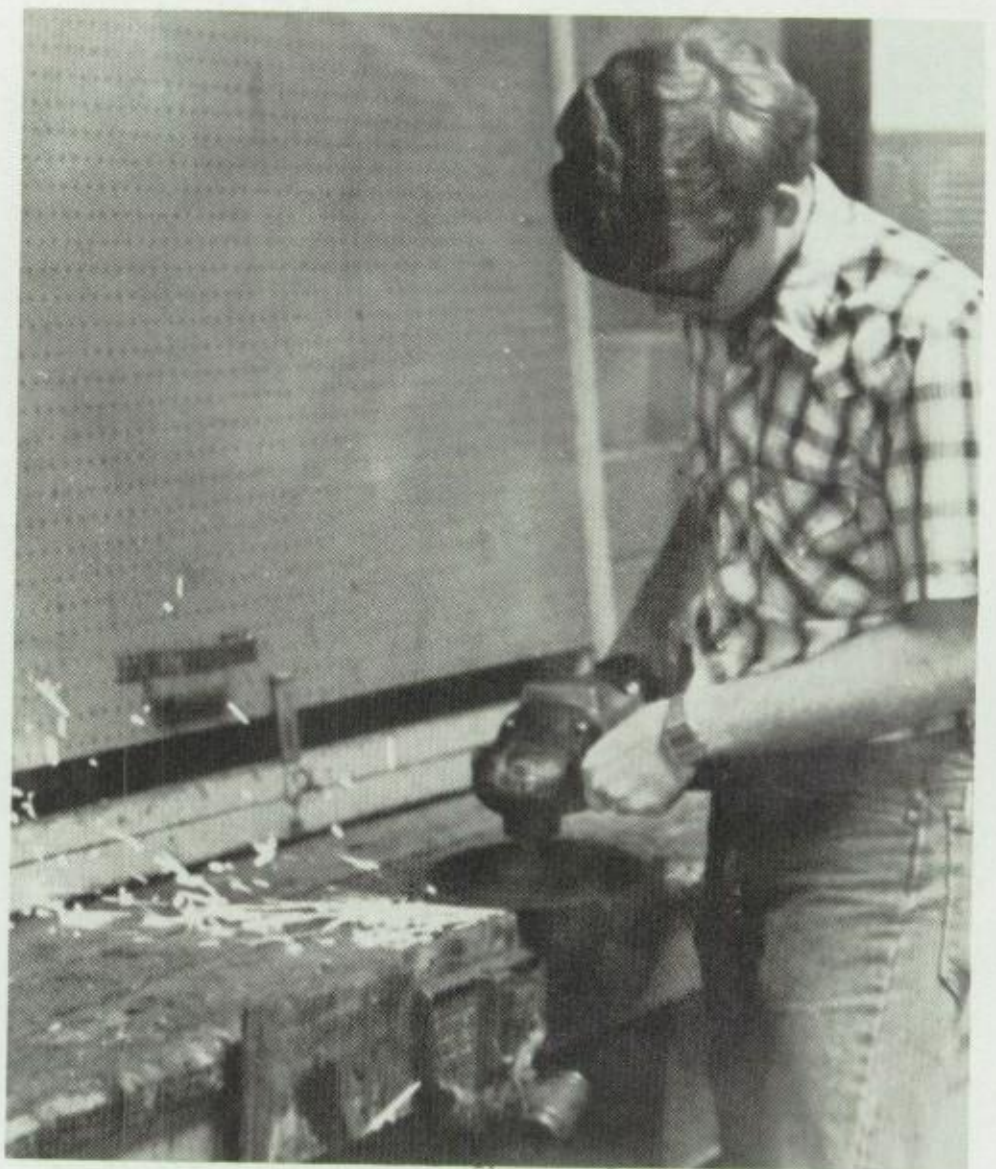

Sam Harris teaches four Vocational Agriculture classes at Garnett High School. The classes are set-up on a progressive basis beginning in the lower levels with developing skills and continuing in the upper levels using these skills.

In Vo-Ag I, the students spend most of their time in the classroom studying procedures and they apply these procedures during the second semester when they begin the hands-on learning. In Vo-Ag II, students study livestock breeds and their proper feeding rations. Vo-Ag III focuses on the actual farming procedures. Students in Vo-Ag IV spend all their time in the shop building various projects such as trailer beds, weight benches, and cattle panels. The students supply the materials for these projects which they use in the future.

The basic intent of these classes are to prepare students for farming and vocational work.

Library Use Increases & Expands

Mrs. Shelley is pictured with one of the new television sets in the audio visual room.

The library facilities under the direction of Mrs. Marilyn Shelley were expanded. New audio equipment was added as well as over six hundred new books for the library. With the addition of audio visual materials, teachers used the facilities more this year. Mrs. Shelley observed that on many days the a.v. room was in use the entire school day. The G.H.S. video library runs the gamut from "Macbeth" to "My Fair Lady."

The Inter-Library Loan has also been expanded with the availability of books from states other than Kansas.

Mrs. Shelley attended Emporia State University and received her B.S.E. degree and a masters in library science.

Mrs. Shelley is always generous with her help when students or faculty members need assistance locating items.

Francis Lowden, school psychologist, and Linda Coffman, supervisor of the L.D. program, work in conjunction with the special education cooperative of East Central Kansas. Mrs. Coffman helps students at several other schools in the district.

Mrs. Cobbs gives Theresa Miller some advice.

A YEAR TO REMEMBER

BE THE BEST OF WHATEVER YOU ARE

If you can't be a pine on the top of the hill,
Be a scrub in the valley — but be
The best little scrub by the side of the rill;
Be a bush if you can't be a tree.

If you can't be a bush be a bit of the grass,
And some highway happier make;
If you can't be a muskie then just be a bass —
But the liveliest bass in the lake!

We can't all be captains, we've got to be crew,
There's something for all of us here,
There's big work to do, and there's lesser to do,
And the task you must do is the near.

If you can't be a highway then just be a trail,
If you can't be the sun be a star;
It isn't by size that you win or you fail —
Be the best of whatever you are!

Bulldogs End Losing Streak, Sept. 23, 1983

Bottom Row (left to right): Mgr. Larry Sutton, Coach Mike Casteel, Bill Reed, Dennis Hiner, Billy Ely, Donnie Miller, Keith Honn, Tony Hoffman, Craig Kueser, Dereck Aldridge, Shawn Cahoon. The 1983-84 Bulldog football team had one of its most successful seasons in several years. Competing in the newly formed Frontier League Garnett faced new teams in Baldwin, Wellsville, and Prairie View. Other teams that Garnett has played in the past who are in the new League are Paola, Osawatomie, Gardner, and Louisburg. Other non-conference games were played against Butler, Mo. and Iola. On Sept. 23 the Bulldogs defeated Prairie View 6-2 for the first win in 38 games. This win gave Garnett the confidence that had been lost after losing 38 games in a row. In the weeks following this win, Garnett had a tough time while losing to 4a State ranked Baldwin 16-6 and 3a State power Wellsville 14-0. Garnett then went into another slump, losing the next three games, but on November 4, 1983 the Bulldogs defeated rival Osawatomie 22-8 in the last game of the season. This win capped what Head Coach Richard Wells called a moderately successful season. Coach Wells felt that the team had come along way in the 3 years prior to this year. He was especially proud of the players who learned a new defense and a new style of offense in such a short time. The defense had several bright spots during the season. Holding Prairie View scoreless and giving up only one touchdown to Osawatomie capped off a very successful defensive effort by Garnett. The offense had problems with ball control and turnovers but the all pass oriented offense along with strong defense gave Garnett the reputation of an exciting football team.

Two seniors and one junior were named to the All-Frontier League team while two other juniors received honorable mention. Senior Marty Holloran repeated as all-league middle linebacker along with senior Rob Miller as defensive downlineman and junior Bill Reed as punter. Junior defensive end Lynn Wilson and junior wide receiver Chris Herold both received honorable mention from league coaches. Special awards were given to junior Brian Rockers as Bulldog of the Year, sophomore Kent Bohling received the Dr. Ralph E. White award for being the most improved player and senior Richard Parks was named football Scholar of the Year.

Future Looks Good For J.V.

The 1983-84 Bulldog Junior Varsity football team had one of its better seasons winning 4 games and losing 3. Coach Mike Casteel felt that the season had several bright spots, with a 28-0 win over Louisburg, a 6-0 win over Gardner, and a 6-0 shut out over Wellsville. Head Coach Richard Wells commented on the style of play the J.V. displayed. He said that J.V. football is a learning experience and Garnett worked hard and had plenty of playing time on both J.V. and Varsity. The team was composed primarily of Freshman and Sophomores. All the coaches felt that if these players work hard and gain new experiences the Garnett football team should have some outstanding seasons to come.

The Boys varsity hit their season high with a 2nd place finish at league. The Boys J.V. also had a good year finishing no lower than 3rd during the season. The Girls varsity had a spectacular year placing 1st at three meets and 2nd at four others. They ended the season with a 9th place finish at the state meet. Coach Jerry Howarter said that he was very proud of this years teams and that his eager for next season to get underway. The coach stated that he will miss three fine seniors from next years team. They are Bill Mains, Larry Massey, and Teresa Gettler. Coach Howarter said they are all very fine runners and they will be missed, but he also stated that he has some very talented underclassmen who will get the job done for the 1984 season.

Girls' Varsity Join Frontier

The 1983-84 girls varsity basketball team entered the new Frontier League in a rebuilding stage with only three returning letterwomen-seniors Teresa Gettler, Debbie Mayes, and Julie Wells. The first game was perhaps the most exciting game of the season for the girls as they won in double overtime over Gardner 59-57. It also signaled that the girls would have to overcome adversity and tough competition throughout the basketball season.

Coach Ryman feels the girls solidified several attributes from the seasons contests including strengthening character, unit cohesiveness, teamwork, and goal orientation. He stated "the girls determination and willingness to improve from week to week further increased my respect for them as the season progressed."

Debbie Mayes was recognized as ALL-LEAGUE and named to two All-Tourney teams.

Boys' Varsity Has Good Season

The 1983-84 boys basketball team had a successful season even though their record was one game below .500. The Bulldogs accomplished more than what was expected of them. Starting the season with a second place win at the Osawatomie Tournament and a third place showing at the Baldwin Tourney were highpoints for the Bulldogs. But the main highlight of the year was a 50-40 win over Caney Valley in the first round of the sub-state tournament held in March.

The Bulldogs had a young team, with only three seniors, six juniors, and four sophomores making the varsity team. Junior Doug Erhart led Garnett with a season total of 300 points, an average of 16 points per game. Doug was the only Bulldog who was honored by league coaches as he received all-league honorable mention for the second straight year. The Bulldogs set several league records this year. The season offensive rebounding record of 15.5 per game and the single game rebounding record of 50 vs. Louisburg. Doug Erhart set a league record in steals with 3.9 per game and junior Straci Tobin set a record in field goal percentage shooting 47%. Senior Marty Holloran closely followed with a shooting mark of 46%.

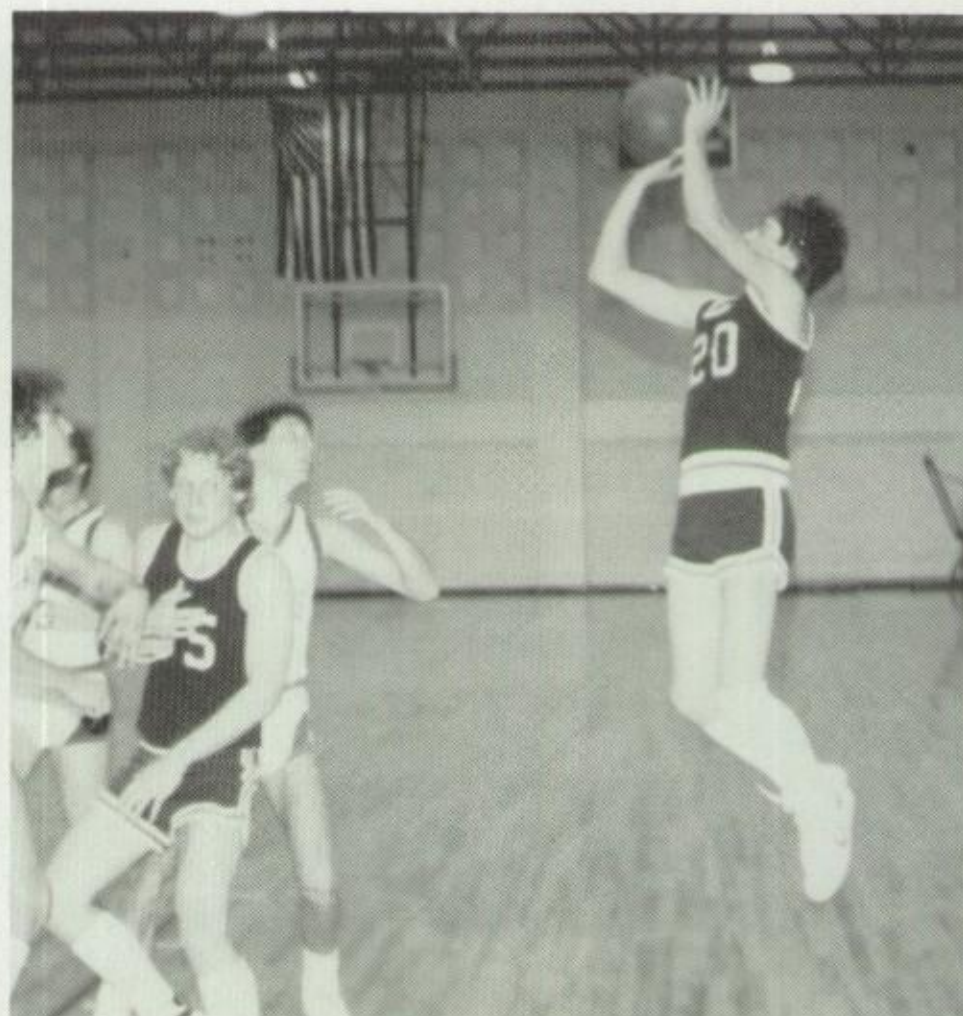

Head coach Mike Casteel said "we had a successful year with some ups and downs. Our young players and lack of experience was a problem for us all year." Coach Casteel also feels that the players learned a great deal and should be one of the top teams in the league for years to come. In addition to the youth and inexperience the Bulldogs had problems with illness and injury. But despite these problems Garnett had a very successful season. Gaining valuable experience and learning the fine points of basketball should help the basketball program in the future.

J.V. Team Trounces Opponents

The 1983-84 Junior Varsity basketball team had one of their best seasons in many years. With a 10-3 record coach Mike Casteel said that this was the best J.V. team he has ever coached in Garnett. Coach Glenn Suderman also felt that this team is the best all-around J.V. team that he has coached since being in Garnett.

A strong second place finish in the Waverly tournament was the highlight of an outstanding season. The only thing that stood in the way of the J.V. Bulldogs was a strong Wellsville team, who defeated Garnett twice during the regular season. The only other loss was to Central Heights early in the season, but Garnett fought back and defeated C.H. in the second round of the Waverly tournament.

Coach Suderman felt that the aggressive style of play and pressure, zone and trap defenses aided to the teams success. The coaching staff was pleased with the way the boys have improved since their Freshman and Sophomore seasons and hope that the team will be as successful in the future.

Frosh Learn Basketball Basics.

The 1983-84 Freshman boys basketball team did not have a winning season, but coach Glenn Suderman was happy with the way the Bulldogs played. He felt the eight boys that were on the team will some day be more successful. "They played with desire and determination all year long". "This team is much like last years freshman team which was 1-7, but had a 10-3 record playing J.V. ball".

The freshman basketball program is built mainly for the purpose of teaching the players the basics of basketball. The coaching staff feels that these freshman have learned well and should be very successful in the future.

Girls Continue Under New Leadership

The 1983 girls golf team had a very successful season under their new coach, Paul Windsor. They finished third at the state meet in Hoisington behind the host team and Scott City with a 4-woman score of 447. This finish ties the best finish in Garnett girls golf history.

The team lacked the inner competitive nature of golf teams due to the fact that they had only five girls on the team, whereas golf teams are generally made up of at least six players. Despite this small hurdle, the girls practiced hard and were rewarded for their efforts. Teresa Singer, senior, and Stacy Hodgson, junior placed 5th and 7th respectively at the state meet to cap off very successful individual seasons. Also on the team were Angie Baldrige, sophomore, Michelle Galey, sophomore, and Tara Peine, sophomore.

Coach Windsor felt that despite the lack of daily competition, the girls practiced hard and showed a great deal of improvement. He also felt that next year looked promising on the individual level.

1984 was Paul Windsor's first year as coach of the boys' golf team. Fourteen golfers participated in the program. Eight of these fourteen played alternately at the varsity level including three seniors.

The year ended in disappointment for most of the team. At the regional tournament at Columbus, the 4-man teams of Garnett and Iola were even. When the 5th scores were compared the two were still tied but the sixth scores put Iola on top and ended Garnett's hopes of going to state. Brad Leitch was second medalist at the regional and advanced to the state meet in Salina. Leitch placed second at the state meet shooting a 73.

Most of the team was young and inexperienced but Coach Windsor feels that with some practice the team can be competitive in the future.

Banquet Honors Winter Athletes.

It could have been called "Marty Holloran" night instead of the Spring Sports Banquet Thursday night at Holy Angels School.

Holloran won three of the four major presentations at the banquet which was sponsored by the Barnett Booster Club to honor athletes, coaches and cheerleaders from the winter and spring sports.

Holloran won the David Penn Memorial award, the Secretary of Defense award and the Ray Meyer Sportsmanship Award.

David Ratliff won the Bulldog Wrestler of the Year award. He led the team in six of eight categories and is a junior.

The David Penn award is given to the outstanding senior athlete of the year as voted by all coaches. The Secretary of Defense is given to the player who is outstanding on defense in basketball and the Ray Meyer Sportsmanship Award is given to the outstanding senior boy in basketball who best shows his leadership and accepts decisions of coaches and referees in addition to other qualities.

Melvin Barnett presented the wrestling awards, stating that there were no seniors on this year's squad.

GRADUATION

A YEAR TO REMEMBER

IT COULDN'T BE DONE

Somebody said that it couldn't be done,
But he with a chuckle replied
That "maybe it couldn't," but he would be one
Who wouldn't say so till he'd tried.
So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin
On his face. If he worried he hid it.
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it.

Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never do that;
At least no one ever has done it";
But he took off his coat and he took off his hat,
And the first thing he knew he'd begun it.
With a lift of his chin and a bit of a grin,
Without any doubting or quiddit,
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done,
There are thousands of prophecy failure;
There are thousands to point out to you, one by one,
The dangers that wait to assail you.
But just buckle in with a bit of a grin,
Just take off your coat and go to it;
Just start to sing as you tackle the thing
That "cannot be done," and you'll do it.

HUG O' WAR

I will not play at tug o' war.
I'd rather play at hug o' war,

Where everyone giggles

Where everyone kisses,
And everyone grins,
And everyone cuddles,
And everyone wins.

SICK

"I cannot go to school today,"
Said little Peggy McKay.
"I have the measles and the mumps,
A gash, a rash and purple bumps.
My mouth is wet, my throat is dry,
I'm going blind in my right eye.
My tonsils are as big as rocks,
I've counted sixteen chicken pox,
And there's one more — that's seventeen,
And don't think my face looks green?
My leg is cut, my eyes are blue —
It might be instamatic flu.
I cough and sneeze and gasp and choke,
I'm sure that my left leg is broke —
My hip hurts when I move my chin,
My belly button's caving in,
My back is wrenched, my ankle sprained,
My 'pendix pains each time it rains.
My nose is cold, my toes are numb,
I have a sliver in my thumb.
My neck is stiff, my spine is weak,
I hardly whisper when I speak.
My tongue is filling up my mouth,
I think my hair is falling out.
My elbow's bent, my spine ain't straight,
My temperature is one-o-eight.
My brain is shrunk, I cannot hear,
There is a hole inside my ear.
I have a hangnail, and my heart is — what?
What's that? What's that you say?
You say today is ... Saturday?
G'bye, I'm going out to play!"

THE TIGER

Tiger! Tiger! burning bright
In the forests of the night,
What immortal hand or eye
Could frame thy fearful symmetry?

In what distant deeps or skies
Burnt the fire of thine eyes?
On what wings dare he aspire?
What the hand dare seize the fire?

And what shoulder, and what art,
Could twist the sinews of thy heart?
And when thy heart began to beat,
What dread hand forge thy dread feet?

What the hammer? what the chain?
In what furnace was thy brain?
What the anvil? what dread grasp
Dare its deadly terrors clasp?

When the stars threw down their spears,
And watered heaven with their tears,
Did he smile his work to see?
Did he who made the Lamb make thee?

Tiger! Tiger! burning bright
In the forests of the night,
What immortal hand or eye,
Dare frame thy fearful symmetry?
William Blake

In Closing . . .

It is May again and another school year has joined our past. The yearbook staff and I hope you enjoyed our accounting of the 1983-84 school year at Garnett High School as represented in this book.

I cannot send the final pages to the publisher without specifically thanking those who made teaching journalism at GHS this past year a joy.

A very special note of appreciation goes to Yearbook Editor, Julie Callahan. Julie worked long hard extra hours with grace and charm and much perserverence. I wish every yearbook advisor could have a Julie.

Julie's counterpart on the school newspaper was Editor, Karen Porter who worked with cheer and grins even when copy was late and the headlines didn't fit. Every newspaper advisor should have a Karen too.

Thank you also to the photographers, Theresa Miller, Monica Dieker, Jim Cazier, and Connie Lewis who worked and perspired in our less than comfortable darkroom . . . to Jill Adler and Mary Rockers who did their pages and then cheerfully prepared additional copy and layout work . . . to Rob Miller for his help in the sports section . . . to Brad Leitch who did all the bookkeeping for the publications in addition to his regular duties . . . to Bill Wright of Wright's Studio, Ottawa, who took the group pictures for this book and to Neil McChristy of the Garnett Publishing Company who shared pictures with the newspaper and yearbook staff . . . to Don Mathers, Josten's/American Yearbook Company representative who is always so very helpful . . .

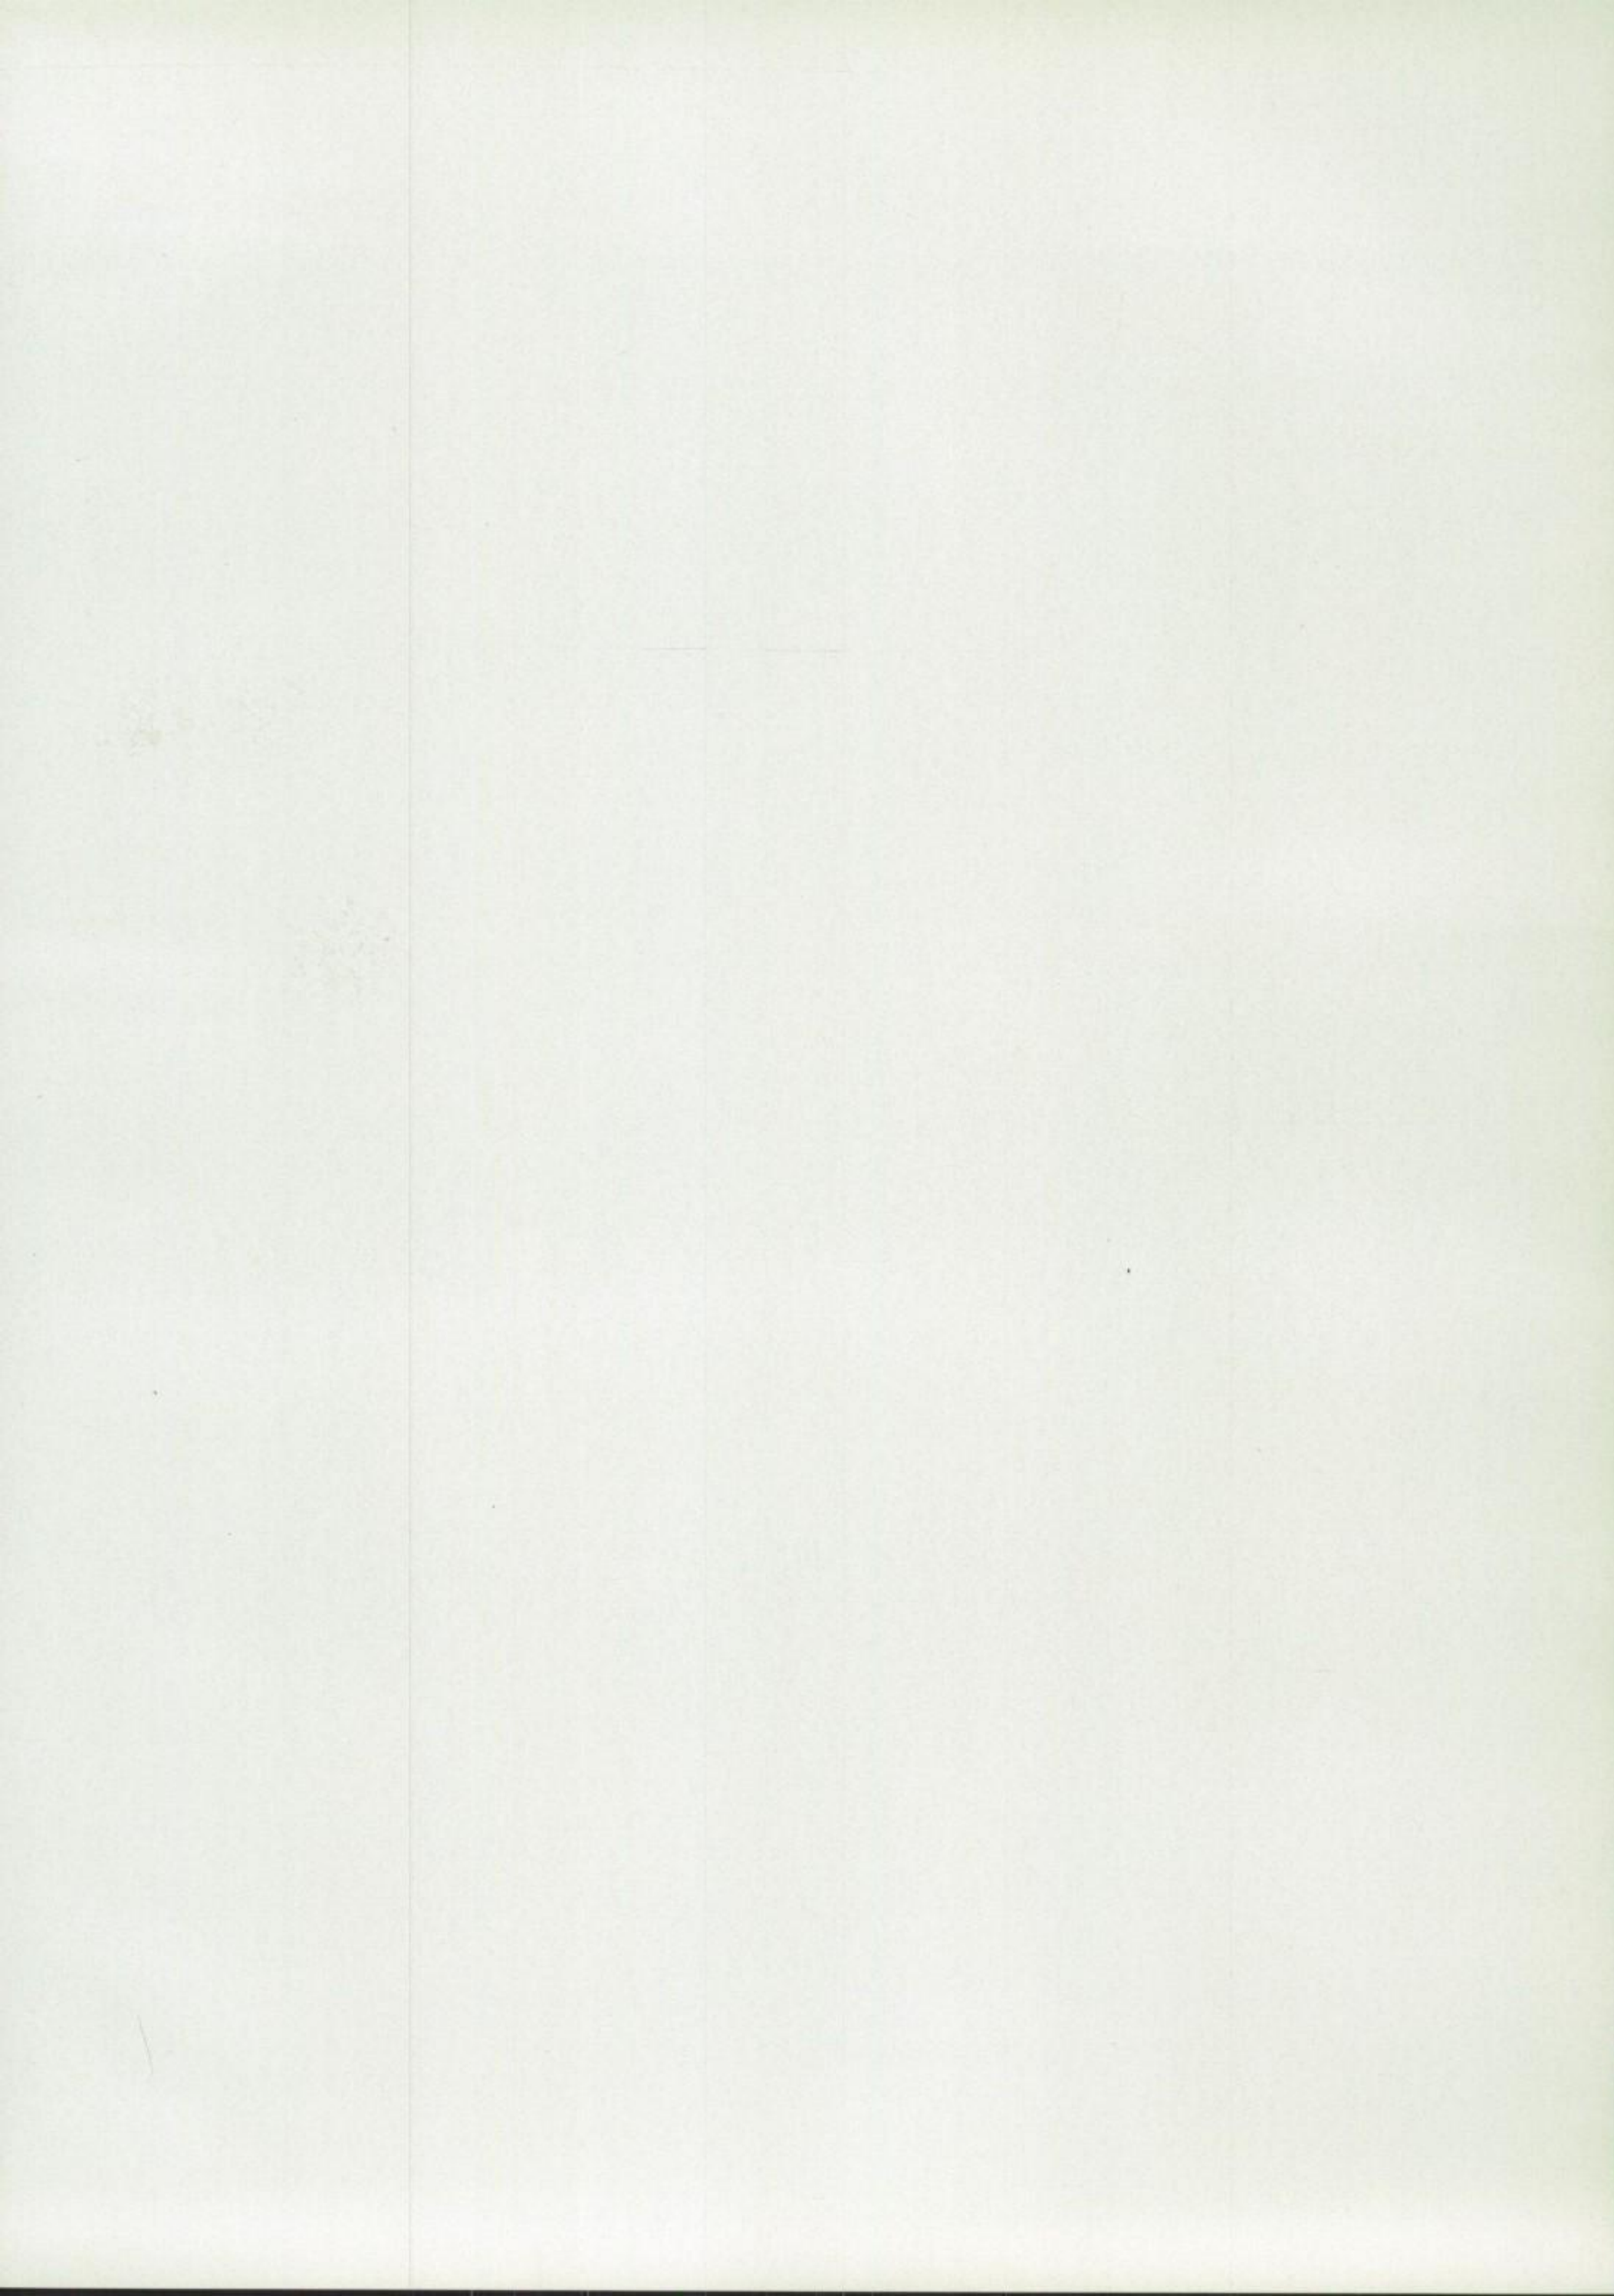

Thank you all ---- you are appreciated.
